Let's have a right royal knees-up!

UP to one million visitors are expected to converge on London to get a glimpse of Prince William and Kate Middleton on their wedding day - Friday, April 29th.

For the rest of the country - indeed the world - television coverage will be beaming the Royal Wedding into millions of homes with an estimated two billion audience.

No one stages these sort of events better than the Brits - and all the pomp and pageantry associated with state and royal occasions will be much to the fore.

The wedding has also caught the imagination of the British public because Prince William is marrying a commoner.

The heir to the throne, now a search and rescue helicopter pilot based in Anglesey, met and courted Kate Middleton, who hails from Durham mining stock, at university in St Andrew's in Scotland.

If nothing else, it's a good excuse to have a right old knees-up - and an extra day off!

The wedding day has been designated as a public holiday and even in the current difficult financial climate the nation will celebrate this special Royal occasion with parties throughout Dorset and up and down the country.

The View From series of newspapers, published by Lyme Media & Events, are celebrating the occasion with this special four-page supplement, a copy of which is being sent to the royal couple wishing them a long and happy life together.

The Lyme street 'not cleaned for 4 years'

THE unkempt streets of Lyme Regis was one of the hot topics discussed at the annual town meeting of electors at the Woodmead Halls on Friday.

By Philip Evans

The meeting, attended by only 42 electors, one of the poorest turn-outs for several years, heard that one street in the town, Bay View Road on the Colway Mead estate, had not been swept for four years.

The claim was made by former town councillor and local historian Ken Gollop, who also drew attention to the unkempt state of Bell Cliff and Coombe Street.

Mr Gollop brought the house down when he suggested that the council employ at "heard of goats" to get rid of the vegation in Coombe Street.

Mr Gollop told the meeting: "There is just no joined up thinking when it comes to the cleaning of the streets in Lyme Regis.

"Bay View Road has not been swept for four years or more. What we want in this town is somebody in charge of street cleaning for the town, district and county councils."

District councillor Daryl Turner defended West Dorset's street cleaning

DANCE teacher and choreographer Rebecca Mather returned to her hometown of Bridport 20 years ago after a career on stage and TV.

Having begun dancing in Bridport, performing in local pantomimes with the Bernard Gale School of Dance, Rebecca landed her first professional job at 18-years-old following an audition at the famous Pineapple Dance Studios.

Rebecca went on to tour in shows across Europe for 13 years, finishing her career on the Spanish TV Show "Entre Amigos".

Rebecca worked on the weekly TV show for four years and supported some of the world's most famous faces.

After her dance career Rebecca returned to Bridport and has now turned her talents to teaching, working as a dance teacher at The Sir John Colfox School and voluntarily as a choreographer for Bridport Musical Theatre Company (BMTc).

Rebecca is lead choreographer for BMTc's latest show, Showstoppers 2, which begins tonight (Wednesday) at Bridport Arts Centre. The show features a selection of musical numbers from the West End's most famous shows of past and present. The show runs until Saturday night with performances every evening at 7.30pm.

■ WHAT famous faces did you work with in Spain?

One of the backings we had to do, which was quite funny, was for David Hasslehoff, or "The Hoff" as he is now known. I had to straddle a motorbike with him at one point. We were also backing dancers for Bonnie Tyler on "Holding out for a Hero", and I once had to be kissed by Sacha Distel, people probably don't remember him but he was quite famous at the time.

■ WHAT are the highlights of Showstoppers 2 for you?

The jive is quite a dynamic dance, it's very fast and furious. The "Roxanne" Tango from Moulin Rouge is one of my favourites as well.

■ WHO will the show appeal to this year?

I think all age groups definitely. We've got bits from the swing era, the 40s and 50s, and then it goes right through to the modern day musicals. I'd say if you haven't got your ticket yet then come along and see it. Support these people who work so hard rehearsing for this.

■ IS this your hardest challenge so far?

These shows are always quite hard because there is a lot in them and there is no dialogue as such. It's all singing and dancing so there is a lot to put together. It's quite stressful but worth it when it all comes together. It's also nice to give everybody a chance to do a bit when maybe in the main shows they don't get a leading part or have a chance to sing.

■ WHAT are your favourite shows you have worked on?

Professionally I used to like television because it was something different every week. You had to really be on top of your game and pick up things really quickly. There were different styles of dancing every week and it really tested you. On an amateur level they have all been quite special for me but I think obviously the first one, "The Boyfriend" that BMTc did because it was a new company and everyone was coming together and it was nice to be involved with that. The show we did last year, "42nd Street", was another favourite of mine, there was a lot of dance in that.

■ WHO would be your three dream guests at a dinner party?

The choreographer Bob Fosse, I would have really liked to have got to know him to see what inspired him. He was the sort of forerunner for all sorts of jazz and musical theatre dance really and a lot has come from him. I'd have someone to make me laugh, Alan Davies or Peter Kay. And someone like Shirley MacLaine, she worked on Sweet Charity, which was one of my favourite musicals growing up as a kid.

■ WHAT was the last book you read, film you watched and CD you listened to?

The last film I watched was East is East because that was on the TV when I got home the other night. I've watched that a few times. The last book was Craig Revel Horwood's life story, All Balls and Glitter, I've got halfway through that and its still on my bedside table. Recently I've mainly been listening to showtunes of course but if I had time I would listen to Adele's album 21.

■ DO you look forward to the end of the show or do you miss it when it's over?

A little bit of both really. It can be quite stressful on the run up to it, pulling all the technical stuff together. It's nice to watch it and get it all over with and you can then move onto the next one.

Lyme crime figures down

CRIME in Lyme Regis is down 41 per cent on last year's figures, according to PC Richard Winward.

The Lyme Regis Safer Neighbourhood Team officer reported "good news" for Lyme, at the Annual Town Meeting of Electors on Friday night.

He said that 200 crimes were reported in the April 2009-10 year, and only 118 were reported between April 2010 and 2011 – a reduction of 41 per cent.

However, PC Winward said the police were still trying to tackle anti-social behaviour.

"Anti-social behaviour can make lives miserable and people sometimes take drastic measures to get away from it. The police are aware of this and we will be tackling it," he added.

The police are also trying to reduce road accidents, by concentrating on drink driving, speeding and people not wearing seatbelts.

PC Winward commented on the recent announcement that the Lyme Regis Safer Neighbourhood Team would be expanding to cover the Marshwood Vale area, due to cuts in the police force.

He said: "It will be different but a great deal of fun and

by Francesca Evans

a bit of a challenge."

PC Winward assured those at the meeting that policing in the Bridport section, which includes Lyme Regis, would not be reduced.

In his report, he said the team were looking forward to working with the town's new youth club, The Hub, and said he was pleased young people would have somewhere to go.

He also said he was looking forward to the new Marine Parade shelters opening, although it would be a challenge to ensure they were not damaged.

He concluded: "Overall it's good news for Lyme. We will be working at it this year to keep crime down but it's not all down to the police, the co-operation of everyone in Lyme is needed."

'You've been fantastic' says Marine chairman

LYME Regis Town Council received an unexpected accolade at Friday's annual town meeting of electors.

John Bartholomew, chairman of Lyme Community Arts Trust, which owns and runs the Marine Theatre, paid tribute to town councillors for their continued support of the theatre.

"You have been fantastic," he told them, and thanked them for their great patience whilst the trust worked to solve the Marine's financial problem and put the amenity on a firm footing for the future.

He also paid tribute to town clerk, Mike Lewis, saying he was one of the best local government officers he had come across in his 30 years working with local authorities.

Mr Bartholomew referred to the disparity in grant aid for the theatre from the district council compared to that received at other arts facilities in the area, although the Marine staged more events and had a bigger footfall.

He confirmed that the trust would be presenting a new business plan to the town council at the end of April which would give the theatre a vibrant future for a long time.

◆ Lyme Regis Town Council support the Marine Theatre to the tune of £32,000 a year but also sanctioned further funding of £30,000 in December to enable the trust to meet its financial commitments and prevent it from going out of business.

'Appalling' street cleaning service

service, pointing out that the streets on the old estate where he lived were swept regularly.

He told the meeting: "One of the problems in Lyme Regis is that the road sweeper cannot get near the pavements because of all the parked cars. There are some places where the fire engine cannot get through."

Terry O'Grady, a candidate in the forthcoming town council elections, shouted from the floor: "Can't they get a broom through?"

Councillor Turner retorted: "West

Dorset District Council is not going to put a man with a broom on every street corner."

Mr O'Grady: "Coombe Street never gets cleaned. The service from West Dorset District Council and Dorset County Council is appalling."

Councillor Turner replied that they could have every service they wanted so long as they were prepared to pay for it.

Mr Duncan Lay, another town election candidate, thought funds could be raised to pay for better street cleaning, pointing out that the parking fees in the district council car parks could be increased from the £1.70 per day.

"We want new blood on this council and we can turn this around," he added.

Councillor Turner: "You can have what funds you want but you have to get the electorate to pay for it."

Jackie Headley-Tuffs said a lot of the mess in the town was caused by seagulls tearing open the rubbish bags.

The meeting was told that anti-seagull bags were available from the Tourist Information Centre at a cost of £5 a bag.

Council celebrates Pat's 30-year service to town

LONG-SERVING town council staff member, Pat Stamp, was speechless when colleagues, friends and family surprised her with a party to celebrate her 30-year service to the town.

Fellow council office staff organised a tea party in the Guildhall on Thursday afternoon to mark Pat's 30 years as secretary to the mayor and town clerk. They were joined by councillors, external staff, Pat's daughter Lorraine and grandson Callam.

The party was originally organised for Wednesday, which was the actual anniversary of Pat's first day at the council, but as she asked for the day off, the celebrations had to be quickly re-arranged.

Pat, from Charmouth, was presented with a gift from the office staff and a bouquet of flowers by the Mayor. She also received a bouquet from the View From Lyme Regis, as a thank you for her help in dealing with press enquiries.

Deputy town clerk Simon Ratcliff gave a humorous speech, listing links between Pat's first year on the job, 1981, and 2011. He pointed out that both had a royal wedding.

Guests then enjoyed tea, coffee, cake and scones.

MAD bring out the Madness in Our House

*Theatre Review
by Philip Evans*

THERE'S an obvious synergy between a dramatic group called MAD performing a show that features all the hits of chart-topping favourites Madness.

The fact that the Charmouth-based Marvellous Amateur Dramatics, formed just two years ago, had the confidence to take on the award-winning West End musical "Our House", only recently made available to amateur societies, speaks volumes for their depth of talent and the ambition of director Bernie Fallon.

"Our House", staged at the Electric Palace in Bridport over three days, presented a huge technical challenge for MAD with numerous costume changes and demanding dance and musical numbers.

The dance routines were stunning and much credit must go to choreographer and producer Jane Hutchins.

Expertly weaved into the story are all the classic Madness hits, including "Baggy Trousers", "It Must Be Love" and "Wings of A Dove", guaranteed to attract the attention of the audience.

The complex story line follows the life of Joe Casey who on the night of his 16th birthday takes the girl of his dreams out on a first date.

In an effort to impress her he breaks into a building site overlooking his home, owned by a high-flying property developer. The police turn up at which point Joe's life splits into two: the Good Joe, who stays to face up to his responsibilities, and the Bad Joe who flees.

It's a very clever script which demands total concentration of the audience in following Joe's roller-coaster choices, made all the more difficult due to some sound difficulties during the opening numbers.

But it did not detract from the overall enjoyment of a fast moving and highly stimulating performance featuring some notable individual successes.

High in this pecking order came Alex Hall, playing the part of Joe, and his dream girl, Sarah, portrayed by Grace Keeler. Here are two 15-year-olds whose performances defied their ages. Alex handled Joe's dual personality with consummate ease while Grace's charming voice was a highlight of the show.

The parts of the two not-so-street wise geezers, Emmo and Lewis, were played with great verve by Tom Glover and Callam Thom, who added much to the humour of the production. Tom gave his usual confident portrayal whilst Callam, playing his first role outside school dramatics, positively revelled in his role and is definitely one for the future.

Jodie Glover and Alice Kiltie, playing the roles of Cockney cuties, Angie and Billie, added much to the pace of the proceedings with boundless energy on stage and savvy vernacular, whilst Cameron Love adopted the required attitude in his portrayal of the loser Reecy.

Chris Denne made a believable Mr Pressman, the dodgy property developer, and Kenny Poole, as Joe's Dad, the narrator, and Mum Zuzana Aukett, gave admirable support.

In all, a thoroughly enjoyable evening's entertainment at a real theatre, with a predominantly young cast demonstrating that talent abounds in West Dorset.

Supporting cast: Lauren Antinoro, Roy Bowskill, Chris Denne, Amy Givens, Imogen Gorden, Rachel Hamblett, Josh Hamblett-Edwards, Taelor Hamblett-Weaving, Grace Herbert, Jamie Issacs, Sam Kapur, Cameron Love, Charlotte Morton, Nicole Parkinson-Ward, Torie Perry, Dominic Reynolds-Grey, Jane Stevenson, Anthony Steventon, Cal Sutherland, Pete Ward.

Production team: Creative and Musical Director Bernie Fallon, Choreographer Jane Hutchins, Assistant Musical Director Philip Clouts, Props Mistress Jacqui Ward, Stage Manager Jamie Isaacs, Assistant Stage Manager Jonty Gray, Stage Hands Tony Glover, Callum Jordan, Ben Maylor and Joe Bailey, Wardrobe Lucy Keeler, Dresser Lorraine Thom, Lighting Simon Gill and Dan Jones, Sound Richard Hewlett, Carpenters & Set Builders Alex Owen, Tony Glover, Kenny Poole, Set Hire John Murdoch, Hair and Make Up Roberta Juxon-Keen, Chaperone Nettie Wakley, Front of House Jean Glover, Publicity and photography Sugarcube Studios and Dylan Hanby, Box Office Bridport Music.

Big Breakfast raises over £900 for charity

THE Lyme Regis Branch of Cancer Research UK served up over 100 breakfasts last week raising £923.

The Big Breakfast was held at the Baptist Church Hall on Friday, where many local residents and visitors to the town enjoyed traditional fried breakfasts or bacon sandwiches.

The final total raised in-

By Francesca Evans

cluded profits from the raffle and several donations from people who were unable to stay for a breakfast.

As well as serving food in the church hall, the committee also delivered breakfasts and bacon, sausage and egg rolls to local shops and firms in Lyme and Axminster.

This was the third breakfast event organised by the committee, with the previous events bringing in profits of £400 and £700.

Branch chairman Philip Evans said: "The Big Breakfast gets bigger every year. It is now well established as one of our most successful annual events and we would like to thank all those who gave their support, especially local shops and firms who donated raffle prizes.

"We are particularly indebted to Lyme Regis Nursing Home, Millers Farm of Kilmington and Complete Meats of Axminster for their generosity in providing provisions for the breakfast."

■ The next major Cancer Research UK event to be organised by the local fundraising committee will be a Summer Ball at Uplyme Village Hall on Friday, July 1st, details of which will be published in the View From Lyme Regis in the near future.

■ LADIES WHO... BREAKFAST: Local residents enjoy their breakfast

■ TAKING A BREAK: The Mayor, Councillor Michaela Ellis - who volunteers on the Cancer Research UK branch - sells raffle tickets to her colleagues from Boots

■ FELLOW FUNDRAISERS: Cancer Research UK fundraisers Paul Bester and Kirsten Taylor, who climbed the highest peak in the Andes, Mount Aconcagua, for the charity in January, enjoy breakfast with Kirsten's daughters

■ CATCHING UP: Councillor Lorna Jenkin and husband Keith (left) are joined by macebearer Colin Barker for breakfast

Thanks for supporting The Hub

■ WE would like to thank all those people who have been generously supporting The Hub.

So far, through local fundraising, with massive support from you, we have raised £4,794.38 in just the few months that we have been fundraising. We are now looking forward to breaking the £5,000 mark.

We would once again like to thank Rob and Deb at the Nag's Head for hosting another successful quiz at the end of March, which raised a fantastic £200. Thank you to all those people who attended. Also, a further collection of copper coins added another £50 to the pot, so it just goes to show that every penny counts!

A huge thank you to Neville and Sarah Causley from the Hunters Lodge for organising a dinner and auction on April 8th, which raised a fabulous total of £504. Thank you to everyone who attended the event, the volunteers that helped organise and run the evening, and those people and businesses who donated raffle and auction prizes. Your support is very much appreciated.

We are now looking for support (and participants) for a sponsored coast to coast walk planned for the weekend of September 10th. It will be a two-day event, starting in Watchett and finishing in Lyme Regis, with camping approximately half way.

We are looking for walkers, helpers and sponsorship. If you think you would like the challenge, or could help in any way over the weekend please get in touch. For all enquiries, please contact the walk coordinator Stuart Carver on 0799 9504 054.

Also, we are looking for support at our next two quiz nights. The first is to be held at the Ship Inn today (Wednesday) at 8pm. The second will be held at the Royal Standard on May 11th at 8pm.

Once again, our sincerest thanks go to all those people who have donated or helped with events so far. We could not raise this money without your consistent support.

Council should 'welcome' seafront artists

■ LYME Regis is a special place; a small yet pretty town, full of interest, all set in a beautiful part of the country.

Little wonder then that it attracts talented people to visit, live and settle here, as it has done for many, many years.

The two skilled artists, Brian Matravers and Philip Clayton, have each made excellent use of the beach huts over the past winter and, like me, no doubt many of your readers will have seen these individuals occupied in their work during some of the most bitterly cold days. It really puts the phrase "suffering for one's art" into context.

The report in the View From Lyme Regis (April 6th) concerning comments made at a meeting of Lyme Regis Town Council's Organisational Management Sub-Committee, however, leads me with impression that a couple of local councillors hold the view that no one should be doing anything along the beachfront (whether that be a talent for balancing stones or painting pictures), over which the town council has little control.

Rather than making ill-founded allegations about the artists, our town councillors should welcome what they are doing: creating another point of interest for people of all ages and, hence, another reason to come and see what local colour Lyme Regis has to offer.

For a place which promotes art through Dorset Art Weeks and Lyme's ArtsFest, and in a year which celebrates the heritage of Maritime Lyme in all its aspects, our town representatives might show more positive encouragement.

It is unworthy of them to make comments without establishing correct facts and to do so otherwise smacks of short sightedness and small mindedness.

*Paul Stevenson,
Lyme Regis*

New town map unveiled

A NEW town map was unveiled by the Mayor of Lyme Regis, Councillor Michaela Ellis, on Marine Parade.

The map, designed by top illustrator and animator Keith Robinson, cost the council £3,000 and took almost two years planning by the Tourism and Advertising Sub-Committee.

It was unveiled on Saturday morning on the wall under Bell Cliff, at the eastern entrance to Marine Parade, and replaces the old map, which was rotten.

Chairman of the sub-committee, Councillor David Cozens, said: "When we decided to refurbish the town map, we said it should not just be to inform, it should also entertain, and that is exactly what this does.

"We interviewed several worthy artists but it was unanimously decided to choose Keith. He has gone above and beyond."

The Mayor added that it was a pleasure to unveil the new map and thanked the Tourism and Advertising Sub-Committee for their work.

The artistic map includes lots of small and comical details that entertained all at the official unveiling. It will be released as a postcard and a poster, available from the Tourist Information Centre.

Don't miss your chance to vote

THESE will be the last words I write in this column on the forthcoming council elections before polling day on May 5th.

With five candidates for our two district council seats and 20 standing for the town council, I am sure you are being inundated with more than enough information via the election addresses that are currently dropping through your door.

Just in case you are still uncertain who to vote for, the View from Lyme Regis will be offering each of the candidates some space in next week's special election edition.

With so many candidates it's one of the biggest elections in Lyme for some years and there's no doubt that the interest is mounting.

Will some of the old guard be ousted by the eight new candidates? Is it time for change, or will the experience of those who have served the town for so long count in the end?

I gave up trying to

Lyme Matters

by Philip Evans

predict the outcome of local elections years ago and I just can't call this one. There will be some casualties, I am sure of that, but I would not like to say to what extent.

It's extremely healthy for local democracy that so many candidates have put themselves forward for election.

Some view this as a total dissatisfaction with those who have been running the affairs of our town over the past four years; others see it as being indicative of a genuine interest by so many in the challenges faced by Lyme in the coming years.

It's probably a bit of both.

For the first time in a local election it looks as though Facebook might have some influence. There is an ever-expanding Lyme community on the social networking site with the new candidates making full use of the internet to get their message across. Some of the comments have not been over complimentary of the existing council. Some have been unnecessarily rude. But this is the age in which we live and whilst I don't think Facebook will have a tremendous influence on the way people of this town vote, if it encourages more people to vote then I'm all for it.

Only between 30 and 40 per cent of the electorate and Lyme usually turn out to vote in local elections but with so much interest in this year's contest I hope that figure will see an increase.

Sadly, the votes will not be counted in Lyme, as used to happen, but will take place at Weymouth Pavilion on the Friday following polling day. It will probably be Friday lunchtime before the result is declared.

In the days of the old borough council, and indeed in the early years of the town council, the votes were counted in the Guildhall and the results declared on the steps to the Guildhall, often in the early hours of the morning. There would always be a crowd gathered outside waiting to see who had been elected, even if it was very late.

It's a pity that this tradition is not continued as it's not quite the same seeing the results posted on the council notice boards the next day. But this is another tradition lost to the cause of greater efficiency.

As polling day gets closer I hope all the Lyme candidates retain a modicum of respect for each other and that the electorate of Lyme turn out in force to give an emphatic mandate to the 14 selected to run our town over the next four years.

■ IS LYME Regis becoming Islington-on-Sea? I pose the question after the sighting of another Labour Party grandee in our town.

Former Labour leader and European Commissioner Lord Kinnock and his wife Glenys were in Lyme last week and did their shopping in Tesco, indicating they were staying in a holiday let somewhere in the area.

Apparently, Neil was dressed casually in jeans and a blazer and they stopped for a chat with Lyn Paterson, whose husband Graham hails from the Welsh valleys.

Baron Kinnock of Bedwellty in the county of Gwent is now considered to be one of Labour's elder statesmen and is the second big hitter in the Labour Party to spend a few days holiday in Lyme. Shortly after losing the Labour election leadership to his brother Ed, David Miliband and his wife Louise stayed in the town where they were much enamoured by the Town Mill Bakery.

Keep an eye out for John Prescott (sorry, Baron Prescott) - he's bound to be next!

EVENT OF THE WEEK...

AS always, the people of Lyme Regis were remarkably generous when we staged the third Cancer Research UK's Big Breakfast in the town at the Baptist Church Hall on Friday of last week.

When I say "we", I mean the small Cancer Research UK fundraising committee which Jackie and I formed four years ago, and we were delighted to have raised over £900, a record amount.

Usually we have the services of a professional chef to do the cooking for us. This did not materialise this year so the task fell to Jackie and my sister-in-law Christine who did a marvellous job cooking over 100 full English breakfasts as well as a variety of bacon, sausage and egg baps.

Afterwards they both said they didn't want to see another cooked breakfast ever again!

For those who could not make it, we delivered to their door which helped to boost our takings. Many who could not attend sent donations.

Since forming the branch we have raised around £30,000 and we hope our fundraising efforts in 2011 will get that figure near to the £40,000 mark. So far this year we have raised £3,000 so we are well on our way.

A special thank-you for all those who came for breakfast and those local traders who were so generous in supporting our efforts.

Our grateful thanks also go to the Baptist Church who put their marvellous hall at our disposal and who always make us welcome.

We now have a presence on Facebook so those of you into social networking can see what we are up to throughout the year.

Next big event - our summer ball at Up-lyme Village Hall on Friday, July 1st.

Have you seen the ‘William Woodcock’?

■ LIFEBOAT SUCCESSOR: The launch of the “Susan Ashley” in 1891 - she replaced the “William Woodcock”, which the lifeboat crew are appealing for photos of LYME Regis lifeboat crew have launched an appeal for photographs of one of the country’s earliest lifeboats.

The “William Woodcock”, which took ten oarsmen and is credited with saving 22 lives in the waters around Lyme Regis, went on duty in 1866. She was the first named lifeboat to be stationed in Lyme Regis but photographs of the vessel are extremely rare or non-existent.

The current crew want to add the “William Woodcock” to an exhibition for Lifeboat Week in July this year.

“We also need a photograph, or photographs, to help us mark the 150th anniversary of lifeboats in Lyme Regis, which is also this year,” said RNLI volunteer press officer Richard Horobin.

“We will be celebrating the anniversary during Lifeboat Week and our records would be incomplete if we cannot include the ‘William Woodcock’.”

The RNLI have asked Lyme Regis Museum to help, but there was no sign of a photograph of the “William Woodcock” in their files.

According to records, the vessel could take a total crew of 13, was self-righting and cost £277.

Books edited by Mr T.K.Faragher and retired journalist Councillor David Cozens record that the “William Woodcock” was once “wagon-trained” to Seaton, pulled on a carriage by 11 horses, because conditions were too severe to launch at Lyme Regis.

Anyone who can help with a photograph or photographs of the “William Woodcock” can contact Richard Horobin on 07974 268504 or 01297 444550.

■ TWO men aboard a broken down speedboat off Charmouth were rescued by Lyme Regis lifeboat crew on Saturday.

The lifeboat was launched at 2.52pm and towed the speedboat to safety in West Bay.

As the lifeboat left West Bay the harbourmaster asked the crew to investigate an empty canoe padlocked to a beacon post. It was decided that no-one was at risk and the lifeboat returned to Lyme Regis harbour at 4pm.

Lyme links with Foundling Hospital

■ LINKS WITH LYME: Foundling Hospital children outside Berkhamsted School chapel

LYME Regis Museum is celebrating the town’s link with the Foundling Hospital in London, by hosting an exhibition on tour from the Foundling Museum.

The exhibition focuses on oral history recordings of former pupils of the hospital, which was established by son of Lyme Thomas Corum.

Voices of the former students recount their stories of life before, during and after their time in the institution, from the heartbreak of leaving their foster family, to the fear of going out into the world at the age of 14.

To accompany the exhibition, the museum has an animated film about the life of Thomas Corum, by Woodroffe School student Donna Wiscombe.

The exhibition will be held from April 21st to May 31st in the museum’s ground floor gallery.

■ TO celebrate Easter, Beatrix Bunny is hopping into Lyme Regis Museum.

Named after Beatrix Potter, and her literary connection with the town, the rabbit will arrive at 2.30pm tomorrow (Thursday).

Beatrix is the creation – especially for the museum – of Rikey Austin and Jo Farmer of Alice’s Bear Shop. Made of calico, she comes in kit form and is easily sewn.

Rikey and Jo will talk about the link between Easter and rabbits, and demonstrate how to create Beatrix. Afterwards, there will be an Easter egg hunt for all, throughout the museum.

The event is free for all children.

Musical talents shine

STUDENTS from the Woodroffe School in Lyme Regis proved their musical talents yet again in their Spring Concert, held before the school broke up for Easter holidays.

The evening's entertainment started with an accomplished performance from the Wind Band, with a selection of pieces from the film "Up". This was followed by a tuneful guitar solo from Jon Pogson called "Big, Big, Big!"

Next came the Chamber Choir in close harmony performing works by Cesar Frank, De Meglio and Hector. The School Orchestra then gave a stunning performance of "Mission Impossible" and a march, especially composed by musical director Dan Morgan.

The Junior Choir showed its charm with "Pack Up" and "Fireflies" followed by the Samba Band with "Maracata", which had the audience mesmerised.

The second half got under way with cast of this year's forthcoming production of "We Will Rock you" who sang "Radio Gaga". This was followed by excellent reditions from the Brass Quartet and the Junior Jazz Band.

The Senior Choir sang "Rejoice in the Lord Always" by Purcell, accompanied by the Early Music Group conducted by John Seabrook for the last time before his retirement in the summer.

The Saxophone Choir was again very accomplished and the concert was finished by the popular School Jazz Band.

Teacher Chris Sweetland said: "Overall the concert was one of the best ever with some superb performances and the audience were well entertained by the great variety of items on offer."

"The concert was superbly put together by Head of Music Jon Cullimore and music teacher Helen Webb assisted by the many excellent peripatetic teachers and other members of the school staff."

He added that Mr Seabrook's musical contributions to the school would be very much missed in his retirement.

Saxophone success!

SAX SUCCESS: Rosie Marshall, Phoebe Townsend, Olivia Benger

STUDENTS from the Woodroffe School in Lyme Regis scooped two big awards at the recent Devon Performing Arts Festival competition in Exeter.

Sixth former Olivia Benger impressed the judges with her Paul Harvey piece, "Rue Maurice-Bertaux", winning the Advanced Saxophone class while the school's Sax Choir were awarded the highly coveted Woodwind Ensemble Cup for the second year running.

Woodroffe saxophone teacher, Alison Davies, said: "These are fantastic wins for all of our students.

"This year Olivia swapped places with Year 10 student, Rosie Marshall, who won the award last year and came second this year.

"I was particularly delighted for Year 8 student, Phoebe Townsend, who achieved a second in her grade three class."

Head of Music, Jon Cullimore, added: "This is a richly deserved accolade for our saxophonists who have achieved huge success over the last couple of years."

New members for Charmouth Cubs and Scouts

THE resurgence of the First Charmouth Cubs and Scouts continued last week after seven new members were invested and a new scout leader joined the ranks.

After numbers dropped to just four last year, the group put out an appeal and now the club has seven new members.

The new members were invested on Thursday last week by temporary Group Scout Leader Stephen Thompson.

After making the Cub Scout promise they received their Cub Scout

by Tom Glover

neckerchiefs.

Long term Cub Luke Bearpark also received special recognition on the night, receiving his one, two and three year badges.

A new Scout Leader was also welcomed to the First Charmouth Scouts on the night. Kevin Payne, who has 35 years experience with the Scouts, recently moved to the area from Surrey.

He will be looking to fill the vacant Group Scout Leader post in the near future.

He said: "It is a great challenge and a great opportunity. I'm up for it and I hope everyone else will be as well."

The First Charmouth Cubs and Scouts meet every Thursday during term time at the Scout Hut in Charmouth Playing Fields. The group meet from 6.30pm until 8pm.

To find out more call Cub Leader Toni Green on 07790 795486.

VOLUNTEERS gathered on the Slipway in Lyme Regis for the Annual Beach Clean, organised by Dorset County Council, on Sunday morning.

Over 30 volunteers helped to clear Cobb Beach of rubbish, including Deputy Lord Lieutenant of Dorset, Minnie Churchill, and her partner Simon Bird. Town Councillors Sally Holman and Daryl Turner were also among the volunteers, as well as several candidates currently running for town and district council.

Councillor Sally Holman reported that there was significantly less rubbish on the beach, which she put down to there being fewer storms during the winter, although there was litter from beach barbecues due to the nice weather.

Nursing home raises over £200 for charity

BYMEAD House Nursing Home in Charmouth raised over £200 at a cake sale for charity Mary's Meals.

Mary's Meals was established eight years ago, with the initial idea of helping to feed 200 children a year in poorer countries. It has been so successful, that the charity is now able to feed 5,000 children in 14 countries.

Charmouth acupuncturist Hilary Sharp spoke about the charity at the event, and was presented with a cheque for £205.

Mrs Sharp will be holding a plant sale for the charity on May 7th at Charmouth Community Hall. Light lunches will be available at for £5 and children eat for free.

Cheesey congratulations for Will and Kate

THE Town Mill Cheesemonger in Lyme Regis is commemorating the royal wedding with a specially labelled cheese.

Owner Justin Tunstall has labelled a black-waxed mature Dorset cheddar with a label that reads "Congratulations Wills & Kate".

At the last minute, he also decided to create a cheese for those less enthusiastic about the celebrations, and labelled a similar cheese "Sod the wedding, it's a day off!"

Surprisingly, the anti-wedding cheese has been outselling the celebratory one by a ratio of eight to one.

Mr Tunstall joked: "Any hopes of a future Royal Warrant for the Town Mill Cheesemonger are fading fast!"

The Homestead

ON 5TH of April at 11am we held a memorial service at The Homestead to remember our past Residents and meet up with their families. Janis Moore presided over the lovely service, where the families were asked to place a disc with their loved ones names onto our holly tree.

We then went inside for prayers, tea and biscuits and to reminisce, looking at photos and family albums involving our current Residents. It was lovely to see everyone, when in a small Home we tend to become very close and it is important to the Home we mark anniversaries of birthdays, deaths and marriages to support our Relatives through bereavements. We also wanted to carry the message to both past and present Residents - "You will never be forgotten at The Homestead"

Thank you so much to everyone that made the day so special.

Help and Care when you need it

Healthy eating in older people

Eating well and being active will help you stay fit and healthy so you can live life to the full and reduce the risks of ill health

THE number of older adults in the world is growing both in absolute and relative terms. In 1994, 16 per cent of the UK population was aged over 65. By 2031, this will increase to 23 per cent, and 10 per cent of this figure will be made up of people over 75 years old. The greatest challenge over the coming years will be maintaining the health of this increasing number of older adults.

Deciding what we mean by 'older people' is a little arbitrary. The World Health Organization classifies people aged between 45 and 59 as 'middle age', 60 to 74 as 'elderly' and over 75 as 'old'.

But the nutritional needs of older adults are difficult to neatly categorise into absolute age groups. Dietary needs depend on current health, and while many older people are fit and active, some others who are younger may be frail and require additional care.

Nutrition for generally fit and healthy older adults

Activity

Research shows that remaining active can help to maintain both mental and physical health. Keeping up the activities you enjoy doing will help to maintain physical fitness and preserve muscle tissue. Preserving your strength will help to maintain your independence. Remember, activity doesn't necessarily mean joining an exercise class. Gardening, walking to the shops and housework can all count as types of activity too.

sources (such as fortified cereals, dried fruit, pulses and green leafy vegetables) every day. Absorption of iron from a meal containing non-meat sources is maximised by consuming foods rich in vitamin C at the same time (such as a glass of fruit juice, fresh fruit or vegetables).

Foods to choose

To meet your nutritional needs, aim to eat a varied diet including regular meals and snacks, and drink enough fluid.

Sometimes older people can no longer eat as much food at a single sitting, so include more nutritious snacks in between meals to boost nutrient intake.

Ideas for quick and nourishing snacks:

- Sandwiches filled with cooked meat, bacon, tinned fish, cheese or peanut butter. Use different breads for variety and add pickles, relish and sauces.
- Toast with pilchards, sardines, beans, cheese, ravioli, tinned spaghetti or well-cooked eggs.
- Crackers or digestive biscuits topped with cheese, toasted crumpets, teacakes, yoghurt, fruit, malt loaf, fruit cake, breakfast cereals or soup. If it's difficult to get to the shops, keep some basic foods in your store cupboard:
- Milk: long-life, evaporated or dried milk, and canned milky puddings
- Meat and fish: cans of corned beef, stewed meat, ham, sardines, salmon and tuna
- Fruit and vegetables: a variety of canned or frozen fruits and vegetables, beans, pulses, long-life fruit juice, instant mashed potato
- Drinks: cocoa, malted milk and meal-replacement drinks
- Cereals: breakfast cereals, crackers, crispbread, oatcakes, rice, pasta and biscuits

- Other: soups, stock cubes, gravy, honey, jam, pickles and sauces
- Freezer ideas: frozen meals, bread or rolls, ice cream, fish and meat

Clarondene

WE ALL hope you have had a very happy Easter, celebrating in whatever way you chose. Some will have taken time to be with family and friends as we enter 'the Bank Holiday Season'. Lyme Regis already has an air of August about it, with folks walking across Broad Street as though it were a pedestrian-only zone! Some of us will have enjoyed indulging in chasing chocolate, hidden or packaged, whether or not we have observed any abstinence for Lent. Cyril and I will have attended the joyful dawn service on Easter morn in Langmoor Gardens - doesn't the garden look lovely?

We are all ready for the royal wedding, with bunting everywhere and the day planned. We have decided to have sandwiches in front of the television and have lunch for supper! Royalist or non-royalist, this an occasion we do not intend to miss a minute of.

We are also preparing for the Election, with explanations of AV proving simpler than I imagined. We are also signed up for 2 sessions of Red Cross collection on the 7th so we'll see you at the Bell Cliff between two and three and then outside Tesco.

May your springtime be as merry, busy and happy as we plan ours to be.

We're also delighted to be celebrating our 20th anniversary, and proud of the fact that we've been delivering quality meals to happy customers up and down the country for all that time. It's a remarkable milestone, one that we could never have achieved without our superb staff and loyal customers, who remain at the heart of what we do.

We know that the work we do makes a real difference to the lives of all our customers. We're dedicated to providing a caring, considerate service, and do our very best to deliver above and beyond what's expected of us. From filling our customers' freezers by hand, to offering friendly local phone support, we always go the extra mile.

So, what's on the menu this Spring & Summer? Our seasonal selection has something for everyone, from traditional classics like Chicken in Red Wine Gravy and Gammon with Pineapple to some exciting new recipes too. Our popular Hearty range – for those with bigger appetites – has been expanded to include some tasty new additions like Hearty Pork with Sage Stuffing and the sublime Hearty Lamb Grill Steaks in Mint Gravy.

Our Head Chef, Phil Rimmer, is happy to tell you more:

I'm really excited about the dishes we've created for you this season. We have some fantastic new Mini and Hearty meals to try, and some great vegetarian meals too – the Cauliflower & Spinach Curry is a classic! We always strive to make our meals the best, continually improving them so that you receive the tastiest food at great value for money!

And of course, there's nothing better to round-off the perfect meal than with one of our tantalising desserts! How about our delicious Clotted Cream Ice Cream or zesty Lemon Meringue Pie?

We also have a range of meals designed for special dietary needs – offering lower fat, higher fibre, moderate salt, diabetic and gluten free as well as other 'free-from' options.

There's no commitment, so order as often or as little as you like, the choice is yours. Meals are delivered free of charge and direct to your door by our friendly CRB police-checked drivers and if you wish, they will even pop the meals in the freezer for you.

Whenever you're ready, you simply heat your meal from frozen in an oven or microwave and enjoy!

Terry New's Denture Clinic

Terry New's Denture Clinic offers a service that few can compete with. Terry has been in the denture business for more than 30 years, and got introduced to the business by a relative who was a technician as well.

He visits a lot of homes, and is one of the few practices in the country who is legally qualified to make dentures without the involvement of a dentist. He can make dentures straight to the public, which saves a lot of time and hassle.

"I do a lot of home visits, and meet a lot of people and go to a lot of residential homes," Terry said. "I offer one on one service, at competitive prices."

Prices are extremely competitive even for those with a limited budget. Terry also offers a denture repair service, while customers wait.

"As I work from home, I do offer service at weekends, if I am around."

Based near Ashcot in Somerset, Terry can do home visits within a 25 mile radius of his home. For more information call 01458 210039 or cut out and keep this advertisement for future reference.

Courier Excel

COURIER EXCEL is a Same Day Courier service based in Bridport, which is run by local businessman Paul Saunders.

Paul is hoping to add to his growing customer base and would like to hear from local companies that have a Same Day requirement for deliveries to or collections from London, the home counties or towns on the M3 corridor.

"As I am often delivering to London and travelling up the M3 it makes sense to try and offer a service to companies where they can benefit from my journeys".

Paul is also launching a NEW London and Home Counties delivery service, offering to deliver by 9am the next day if collected by 7pm.

"In my experience customers are increasingly given tighter schedules to work to so by offering a later collection time it will help take some of the pressure off with the knowledge that the delivery will be carried out on time early the next morning".

If you would like to find out more then please e-mail Paul on info@courierexcel.co.uk or ring him on FREEPHONE 08000 680 556, he will be pleased to discuss your needs with you.

Southfield Vets

Here at Southfield Veterinary Centre, all the staff are addicted to chocolate and love the arrival of Easter. Quite often we are fortunate to receive chocolate in one form or another from clients pleased with our care. But, as much as we love Easter, we dread it too. The reason being that chocolate is poisonous for dogs and can KILL.

Chocolate contains theobromine which stimulates the heart and central nervous system and can cause sudden death. Smaller breeds are at a greater risk where the quantity they consume relative to their weight may be greater than in larger dogs. The higher the cocoa content is also more of a risk, so dark chocolate is more dangerous than white. However, any amount should be avoided and treated as dangerous. If in doubt call your vet because it is an emergency due to its rapid absorption into the body.

Accidents happen, even my own three dogs raided the larder one day and found our store of chocolate (there was rather more than normal due to us dieting!). They all had to be made sick and monitored closely over the next 24 hours. You can imagine how upset I was, as a lover of chocolate, not only was I upset because I could have lost all my dogs but also all that lovely chocolate was wasted!

For fish & Chips on the beach, visit Herbies!

LOCAL businessman Matt Yaxley is just starting his fifth summer at the helm of the well established Herbies Dino Bar on the seafront at Lyme Regis.

When Matt took the business on it was regarded more as a run of the mill burger hut but he has transformed the kiosk over his time in charge.

Even so, it has been voted as the best place to get 'cheap fish and chips' by TV celebrity chef Valentine Warner!

Herbies only stocks the freshest fish from 'the old watchhouse in the square on the Cobb' and usually specialise in one or two types a day - Cod, Haddock, Ling, Whiting or Pollock - which are often prepared in Bod-dington's beer batter.

Also served is a range of burgers, breakfast baps, fish cakes, scampi, sausages and whitebait, chips + tartar sauce for £3.75!

None of the fish is frozen; it is all caught by local fisherman and provided by suppliers in West Dorset.

Orders are happily taken by phone so please call ahead to avoid queuing, although because of Herbies harbour side location, you will not be disappointed by the stunning views across the Jurassic coast.

Open 10am until 9pm daily (weather permitting). Please call 07775 513066 to check.

Tantalising Thai Cuisine in Dorchester High-Street

It is worth reminding those who live in the Lyme, Beaminstor and Bridport area that the drive to Dorchester, on a sunny evening is one of the most pleasant routes with regards to the views along the A35 that you will find in the South West.

My girlfriend and I are both very keen on Thai food so I suggested we took a little drive (with the roof down) to Dorchester last Friday evening as I had heard good reports of a wonderful looking restaurant at the top end of town called Thai Nakorn. They frequently promote themselves in View From and my colleague had enjoyed a business lunch there before and spoken highly of it.

After the pleasant drive we were fortunate to find parking in the road directly opposite the restaurant and for a few pence we could park there all evening. The restaurant interior was very well presented with an authentic Thai feel, there are lots of ornamental and decorative features straight out of Thailand and most noticeably, the Tables which seemed to be hand carved with a decorative surface under the glass tops. These are hard to describe but quite amazing and well worth checking out.

The staff were very polite, they would do their best to meet you at the door on arrival and show you to your table and service was very punctual and well presented.

My girlfriend and I have similar tastes so chose a selection of dishes from the menu to share so we could taste a more extensive spread. We opted for the Thai Nakorn Platter to share to start, which came in an attractive large dish with an assortment of nibbles including prawn toast, spring rolls, satay chicken skewers, Filo wrapped Tiger Prawns among others. This was served with a selection of Thai style dips that were all so tasty it was all gone in no time. I photographed one of the decorative garnishes, which you can see below. The butterfly, after careful examination, can only be described as a carefully sliced chunk of what we saw as Swede.

Words & Photos by Fred Thomson

For main course we shared a Pad Thai (a classic Thai noodles dish with chicken, egg and topping of ground peanuts), Khaw Suay (steamed Thai fragrant rice), Kang Kiew Wan (Thai green chicken curry in coconut milk with seasonal vegetables), Ped Ma

Kham (crispy roasted duck in an exotic tamarind sauce topped with golden cashew nuts) and from the evenings specials board we tried the Lyme Bay Scallops in a mild red curry sauce. All of the dishes can be seen on the photographs presented on the Thai Nakorn advert.

If you are looking for an enjoyable evening out with some of the most fragrant food cooked with the freshest ingredients then look no further, this is a restaurant we will definitely be visiting again in the not so distant future.

To book, especially on weekends, call 01305 757188 or 01305 756088.

Easter Events at The Dinosaur Museum

The Dinosaur Museum, in Dorchester, features dinosaurs and prehistoric reptiles and mammals making it a fascinating visit, especially for children. The museum combines fossils and skeletons with life-sized reconstructions of dinosaurs and features such as T rex, Megalosaurus, Triceratops & Deinonychus. Hands on, interactive and cinematic displays allow the visitor to explore the story of the long extinct world of the dinosaurs.

The Great Dinosaur Egg Hunt is the Easter Egg Hunt with a difference and is held at the Dinosaur Museum all over the Easter Bank Holiday weekend. It involves children in actually hunting throughout the museum to spot the dinosaur eggs on display, and discovering the answers to various clues in the Dinosaur Mystery.

The Great Dinosaur Egg Hunt is from Good Friday

A shop with real tradition

Among the many interesting watches at The MEWS, Dorchester is a 1971 Heuer Carrera cal.11 automatic chronograph watch on its original bracelet. This was one of Heuer's first automatic chronographs, it even has the winder on the left which advertising at the time stated you did not need to use the winder except to set the time.

Heuer watches throughout the 60s and 70s were synonymous with motor racing, being worn and used by Niki Lauda, Graham Hill, Jochen Rindt, Jackie Ickx, and of course Steve McQueen to name a few. The watches were even named after races: Silverstone, Montreal, Monaco, and Monza. With the current interest in historic racing and events like Goodwood Revival, the demand for a vintage watch to go with the outfit and the car has pushed the prices of these watches up. At a recent Bonhams auction of over 260 Heuer watches a 1972 Carrera similar to the above example made over £2,600.

If You Have A Septic Tank This Affects You!

Registration of Septic Tanks with the Environment Agency

Does your house drain to a septic tank? If so, the law now requires you to register your septic tank with the Environment Agency by 1st January 2012 but do not leave it to the last moment or you risk being prosecuted!

The Environment Agency do not charge a registration fee, provided that the septic tank drains to ground, serves only a domestic property and produces less than 2 cubic metres of discharge a day to ground or less than 5 cubic metres to surface water, that's all that's required. A four bedroom house is estimated to produce just over 1 cubic metre of discharge a day, so most houses will be easily within the registration limits.

Discharges to rivers or streams must be registered immediately. Cess pits, provided they do not have any discharge, do not have to be registered.

The official guidance from the Environment Agency is 7 pages long, the application form is 5 pages and you need proper plans. If all this sounds like too much trouble let us help. We promise there will be no big legal bill to settle!

Let our expert, Phil Crowther, help with your application and give you the peace of mind of knowing that your application is in good hands. We'll take the details, prepare the application, send it to you to check, pass it on to the Environment Agency and tell you when its been registered, all for £90 inclusive of VAT.

Talented pianist Julia Hsu returns to St Candida's

ST Candida's Church in Whitchurch Canonorum is the venue for a concert by a highly talented and respected pianist. Julia Hsu will perform as part of the Whitchurch Purcellians 2011 season of concerts on Saturday, April 30th, having performed at the venue last June.

Originally from Taiwan, Julia Hsu studied at the Purcell School of Music, before moving to London to study with Patsy Toh and Pascal Nemirovski at the Royal Academy of Music, where completed her Bachelor's and Master's degrees with distinction. During her time there, Julia was awarded the Belmont & Lowe Award, Winifred Christie Award, Stroma Sutherland Award, Lilian Davies Prize for the best performance of a Beethoven Piano Sonata, and a DipRAM for an outstanding Final Recital. In 2006, she was accepted as an Erasmus exchange student at the Sibelius Academy in Finland, where she benefited greatly from the guidance of Matti Raekallio.

Last year Julia obtained the highest performance degree 'Soloklasse' with Professor Raekallio at the Hannover Hochschule für Musik und Theatre. Julia is currently completing her second Master's Degree in Piano Accompaniment with Michael Dussek and Ian Fountain at the Royal Academy of Music, under a full scholarship from the Edna Seabright Award.

Her programme for this concert includes Schumann Toccata Op. 7 in C, Beethoven Sonata Op. 90 in E and Chopin Sonata Op. 35 in B-flat. The concert starts at 7.30 and tickets are £7 (available on the door), including refreshments. For more information, please call Cynthia Bain on 01297 489629.

Stackridge return to Lyme for 'Legends...' series

70S POP icons Stackridge are the second band on this year's 'Legends Return...' series at the Woodmead Halls in Lyme Regis.

Playing a mix of tunes from their classic albums including 'The Man in the Bowler Hat', as well as new original material, the band will bring their folk-flavoured pop sounds back to Lyme, following their show last year.

This is a chance to see a genuinely legendary band, famous for opening and closing the very first Glastonbury Festival and for their work with George Martin, who still play with style and excitement they are famed for.

Stackridge play at The Woodmead Halls, Lyme Regis on Saturday, April 30th.

Tickets cost £12 in advance and are available from Serendip Books, or from Lyme Regis Tourist Information Centre (01297 442138), or can be purchased via PayPal online at <http://www.lymeregis.tv/legends.html>. Tickets on the door will cost £14.

Check out Dorchester's museums at night

TICKETS are now on sale for this year's Museums at Night in Dorchester on the evening of Saturday May 14th.

Following last year's enormous success, Dorchester's six museums are again joining together for a special open evening as part of this national event. New for this year is the addition of the Roman Town House; a very special historic site being the best-preserved example of a Roman Town House in the UK open to public.

Dorchester is fortunate to have such a wealth of museums and historic sites to visit, and they focus on a fantastic range of topics and themes including ancient civilisations, Dorset's social and military history, prehistoric animals, literary Dorset, and teddy bears. Discover the wonders of Tutankhamun's tomb at the Tutankhamun Exhibition; journey through Dorset's past in the Dorset County Museum; explore the exciting world of dinosaurs in the Dinosaur Museum; view mosaic floors up close at the Roman Town House; cuddle up to a teddy bear at the enchanting Teddy Bear Museum; uncover Dorset's rich and personal military past at the Keep Military Museum; marvel at the discovery of the eighth wonder of the ancient world at the Terracotta Warriors Museum.

Museums at Night promises to be a very special night offering families and individuals an unrivalled opportunity to explore and discover seven heritage venues for just £6.00 for the whole family of up to two adults and four children (£10.00 on the night from 5pm until 9pm).

For those who want to relax with a drink and a bite to eat on the evening, several cafes, restaurants and pubs in the centre of Dorchester are linking in with Museums at Night with special opening for those on the museum trail. If it's a clear evening, be sure to check out the views from the roof of the Keep – they're fabulous.

All venues are in the centre of Dorchester within easy walking distance of each other, and all the car parks are free after 6pm. Why not try and visit all the venues, as many did last year, and get a real flavour for what Dorchester has to offer in heritage attractions. Tickets are now on sale at the Dorchester Tourist Information Centre or any of the participating museums.

MAGNIFIQUE!

THIS IS not a review as such as I went strictly as a member of the audience for a little light relief.

However I enjoyed it so much I thought that I would encourage anyone to make the effort to attend any future Chideock Players productions.

Their version of 'Chase Me Up Farn-dale Avenue, s'il vous plait' was hilarious and expertly performed by a small band of actors who looked like they were enjoying acting it.

It would take too long to describe the setting for the play such were the intricacies, except to suggest that if you had not purchased a programme and read the synopsis, I don't think you could have followed the plot, and how the actors managed themselves to remember and repeat some of the complicated sub-plots is beyond me.

The deadpan expressions and stilted acting was a scream; again if you did not know the reasoning behind it you could not fully appreciate it.

Well done Chideock Players – plus, s'il vous plait!

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

*It is very nice to think
The world is full of meat and drink
With little children saying Grace
In every Christian kind of place.*

R.L. Stevenson

WHAT will you be doing this weekend? Will you be celebrating Easter or St Georges Day; Shakespeare's birthday or the arrival of spring; or perhaps all of those things? This spring poem is by the American poet Edna St. Vincent Millay.

SPRING

*To what purpose, April, do you return again?
Beauty is not enough.
You can no longer quiet me with the redness
Of little leaves opening stickily.
I know what I know.
The sun is hot on my neck as I observe
The spikes of the crocus.
The smell of the earth is good.
It is apparent that there is no death.
But what does that signify?
Not only under ground are the brains of men
Eaten by maggots.
Life in itself
Is nothing,
An empty cup, a flight of uncarpeted stairs.
It is not enough that yearly, down this hill,
April
Comes like an idiot, babbling and strewing flowers.*

Shakespeare, of course, wrote about spring too. These verses come at the end of Love's Labour Lost and remind us that the words "cuckoo" and "cuckold" are related.

WHEN DAISIES PIED

*When daisies pied and violets blue,
And lady-smocks all silver-white,
And cuckoo-buds of yellow hue
Do paint the meadows with delight,
The cuckoo then, on every tree,
Mocks married men, for thus sings he,
"Cuckoo;
Cuckoo, cuckoo": Oh word of fear,
Unpleasing to a married ear!*
*When shepherds pipe on oaten straws,
And merry larks are ploughman's clocks,
When turtles tread, and rooks, and daws,
And maidens bleach their summer smocks,
The cuckoo then, on every tree,
Mocks married men, for thus sings he,
"Cuckoo;
Cuckoo, cuckoo": Oh word of fear,
Unpleasing to a married ear!*

Our final poem this week was written during the First World War by Eleanor Farjeon. Eleanor was a close friend of Edward Thomas who was killed by a shell at Arras, in France, on April 9th 1917.

EASTER MONDAY

*In the last letter that I had from France
You thanked me for the silver Easter egg
Which I had hidden in the box of apples
You like to munch beyond all other fruit.
You found the egg the Monday before Easter,
And said, 'I will praise Easter Monday now –
It was such a lovely morning.' Then you spoke
Of the coming battle and said, 'This is the eve.
Goodbye. And may I have a letter soon?'*

*That Easter Monday was a day for praise,
It was such a lovely morning. In our garden
We sowed our earliest seeds, and in the orchard
The apple-bud was ripe. It was the eve.
There are three letters that you will not get.*

THIS WEEK'S
NEW RELEASES

FAST & FURIOUS 5 (12A)

THE fifth movie (known as Fast Five in America) in the Fast & Furious franchise sees a strong cast tackle the familiar formula of fast cars and fast chases, with the usual pulse-racing results.

Former cop Brian O'Conner (Paul Walker) partners with ex-con Dom Toretto (Vin Diesel) on the opposite side of the law. Since Brian and Mia Toretto (Jordana Brewster) broke Dom out of custody, they've blown across many borders to elude authorities. Now backed into a corner in Rio de Janeiro, they must pull one last job in order to gain their freedom. As they assemble their elite team of top racers, the unlikely allies know their only shot of getting out for good means confronting the corrupt businessman who wants them dead. But he's not the only one on their tail. Hard-nosed federal agent Luke Hobbs (Dwayne 'The Rock' Johnson) never misses his target. When he is assigned to track down Dom and Brian, he and his strike team launch an all-out assault to capture them. But as his men tear through Brazil, Hobbs learns he can't separate the good guys from the bad. Now, he must rely on his instincts to corner his prey... before someone else runs them down first.

HITCHIN' A RIDE | Paul Walker and Vin Diesel travel in unusual style in Fast & Furious 5

ARTHUR (12A)

IN this fresh new look at a classic story, Russell Brand reinvents the role of loveable billionaire Arthur Bach, and irresponsible charmer who has always relied on two things to get by: his limitless fortune and the good sense of his lifelong nanny and best friend Hobson (Helen Mirren), to keep him out of trouble.

Kind-hearted, fun-loving, and utterly without purpose, Arthur spends every day in the heedless pursuit of amusement, but when his unpredictable public image threatens the staid reputation of the family foundation, Bach Worldwide, he's given an ultimatum: marry the beautiful, but decidedly unlovable Susan Johnson (Jennifer Garner), an ambitious corporate exec who can keep him in line, or say goodbye to his billion-dollar inheritance and the only way of life he knows.

Dorchester Arts' Sunday Sessions
kick off with top folk duo

NEW to Dorchester Arts, The Sunday Sessions are a perfect opportunity for audiences to spend the evening being entertained by some of the best musicians Dorset has to offer, at the economy busting price of £5 per ticket. Taking place every second Sunday of the month from 8pm – 10pm within the intimate setting of Dorchester Art Centre's Gallery Room, the programme for these sessions will deliver a mix of acoustic rock and blues classics, roots, rhythm and folk. With music to suit a wide variety of tastes and a bar open throughout the evening, The Sunday Sessions are a great new addition to the Dorchester Arts programme.

Beginning The Sunday Sessions on May 8th at 8pm, with doors and bar open from 7.30pm, Dorchester Arts welcome Boyd and Wain the award winning Anglo-American Americana Folk duo. Katy Boyd and Benny Wain create home grown songs of everyday life, blending pure roots and rhythm fiddle playing with honest and passionate vocals.

Dorset violinist Benny Wain started his professional music career at the early age of 12, playing in the family band The Sidling Stompers from Sydling St Nicholas. The Stompers saw great success all over Southern England appearing on Radio 2's Folk on Two and going on to form the folk rock band Jigsaw in the 1990's. Benny is joined by American singer-songwriter Katy Boyd, winner of a prestigious West Coast Songwriter's Association award, Katy moved to Britain in the early 1980s.

The Duo met whilst playing in the band Howling at the Moon, forming Boyd and Wain in May 2009. In July of the same year they were winners of the Trowbridge Village Pump Festival Unsigned Artist Competition and with their debut album, Ain't No Fairy Tale, have toured the US several times and play at many of the major UK festivals.

Boyd and Wain play the Sunday Sessions on May 8th at Dorchester Arts Centre. Call 01305 266926 for more details.

Love Learning summer term starts next week

PENELOPE Frigon's 'Love Learning' adventure started several years ago with French and Spanish courses held in the relaxed and social setting of the Olive Tree Restaurant in Bridport, all served up with a glass of Rioja and mouth-watering tapas.

Last September she expanded these language classes into an alternative Adult Education centre, offering courses in Creative Writing, Archeology and Italian, amongst others. The inspirational tutors include BAFTA award-winner Carol Noble to Time Team archaeologist Chris Tripp. The courses are unique in that they use the facilities of great restaurants and cafes, giving the student a more relaxing setting in which to learn. Not surprisingly, the complimentary coffee, tea and home-made patisserie are a welcome part of the lesson. It's also a great way to support local businesses during the current economic climate.

This year Penney started offering French and Spanish classes in Weymouth at the 'Best of the West' winning Phoenix Bakery.

Following the fantastic response of the students, Love Learning will also be offering children's Saturday morning and holiday courses from this September, which will include French and EcoArt. These courses will appeal to children aged seven years or older and are expected to be held in Bridport and will give parents time to do their Saturday morning shopping!

Love Learning is now taking bookings for the summer term. For more information visit www.lovelearningindorset.com or call Penelope Frigon on 07817 302984. Alternatively pop in to the Olive Tree.

Local film and music come together on Art Centre stage

THREE local men, three local landscape settings, three universal emotions. That could be the strapline for a major new film and musical to be premiered at Bridport Arts Centre on May 6th and 7th. This original new work, produced and written by Bridport filmmaker Clive Whaley, features the three ages of man (young, middle aged and old) in a unique combination of documentary film and original songs performed live on stage.

Clive describes the show "Lonely Boys" as a 'documusical' or 'operamentary' in three acts – Lust, Love and Loneliness. The three ordinary Bridport men, Dewi Lambert (age 24), John Surry (age 81) and Clive (age 49) will appear in pre-recorded filmed interviews at prominent local settings – interspersed throughout with live songs.

The theme is 'the male condition in the early 21st Century' and in particular the comedy and tragedy that arises, often in equal measure, from men bottling up their emotions. "It is for every man who struggles to say how he feels ... and for every woman who wishes that he would" says Clive. "I like to think that it is both a satire and a celebration of that most elusive thing ... male feeling. There are moments in the show where we do not take ourselves very seriously and other times where the reflections are serious and poignant.

"I won't be satisfied unless the audience end up laughing and crying at some time during the performance. Perhaps I'll settle for a broad grin and a lump in the throat!" "One of the most magical aspects of the evening is the fact that the soundtrack for the film and the backing for the songs will be played live by three well known and highly accomplished local musicians – Andrew Dickson, Steve Jones and Robert Lee." Clive wrote the songs but appreciates the transformation that has been achieved by bringing professional musicians on board. "Steve Jones is the musical director. I approached him a year ago with the idea and played him a few of my songs on the guitar and rather amazingly he was able to see something in these rather crude performances to get him interested. Since then he has breathed life and colour into my creations and I think we've come up with something rather special."

Profits from the two evening performances are being donated to the Dorset Mental Health Forum.

The production is generously supported by Bridport Film Society and is a co-production with Encore Theatre Club.

The evening does contain some 'moderate adult humour' and is recommended for ages 12+.

'Lonely Boys' will be shown at Bridport Arts Centre on May 6th and 7th, starting at 7.30pm each night. Tickets cost £8.

Clive's previous full length documentary 'Dorset Days' about Bride Valley farmer Jim Armstrong (Longhorn Jim) also received it's premiere in Bridport and went on to appear on BBC FOUR six times to a combined audience of a million viewers.

Adult education courses held upstairs at the Olive Tree Restaurant, Bridport.

Bonny Sartin opens Bridport Museum's new season

FOLLOWING two years of sell out season opening fundraisers for Bridport Museum, Bonny Sartin will be returning to the West Dorset market town on April 27th with another fascinating talk on the history of Dorset people. This time the story moves abroad, and he will be joined by two of the South West's finest fiddle players to make it a real night to remember.

The talk is entitled "The Banks Of Newfoundland" and tells the story of Dorset's brave fishermen who for hundreds of years sailed across the Atlantic for the summer to fish for cod off Newfoundland.

Bonny said "Many fortunes were made and lost, but the port of Poole, in particular, flourished. It was tough for the fishermen though. Newfoundland is inhospitable. Icebergs, fogs and foul weather played havoc with their little boats and if you survived that you were often greeted by the Press Gang when you reached home."

Joining Bonny will be Nick Wyke and Becki Driscoll, the fiddle duo are leading lights in the new folk generation and have recently completed a project marking the 400th anniversary of the founding of the first permanent English settlement in Canada, Cupids Cove, Newfoundland.

They have been swapping tunes and songs with Newfoundland musicians, and will have just finished a joint tour called Shore To Shore. This show brought together leading singers and musicians from Newfoundland and the West Country of England in an international collaboration that charted the development of folk song and music on both sides of the Atlantic from the early 1600s to the present day.

The event in Bridport in unique opportunity to hear the stories, songs and tunes that link Dorset with Canada in the wonderful Georgian surroundings of The Chapel in the Garden.

Museum Curator Emily Hicks said; 'It is so great to have Bonny back to support us again after his last sell-out shows for Bridport Museum. To have Nick Wyke and Becki Driscoll join him for a one off show is a real coup and it promises to be a great evening's entertainment.'

The event is held on Wednesday, April 27th at the Chapel in Garden on East Street, doors at 7.30. Tickets are only £8 Adv. and £10 on the door. You can pick them up from Bridport Local History Centre (01308) 458703 or Bridport Music (01308) 425707.

Fiddle duo Nick Wyke and Becki Driscoll will play at the Bridport Museum season opener

Celebration Tea for The Hub at The Alexandra Hotel

IT'S rare to come across something that truly captures the imagination. In Lyme Regis The Hub is one of those rare things that brings together local people of all ages to create something exceptional.

The Hub is a joint venture between young people, the community, The Woodroffe School, The Youth Service and Lyme Regis Development Trust and with the backing of Lyme Regis Town Council to create a well resourced, youth centre and expeditionary base by breathing new life into the former Boys' Club building.

After extensive consultation and planning, work is now set to commence on redeveloping the building later in the summer. This sees the beginning of ambitious plans to make The Hub something dynamic for young people, giving a place to go, things to do, people to speak to if advice is needed and a springboard from which to do things elsewhere. The Hub will also be available to the community as time and space allows.

It's only with the support, commitment and hard work of local people and organisations that The Hub can become something of which we can all be proud. It's been amazing how much enthusiasm the project has engendered and money has been raised, by so many, to enable the extensive refurbishment works to start.

The support for The Hub by The Alexandra Hotel's Charity Celebration Tea on The Royal Wedding Day, Friday, April 29th will enable us also to give local young people a fantastic day when the youth centre opens its doors.

Neil Morrissey comes to the Electric Palace

AS one of the nation's most loved actors, Neil Morrissey is to appear at the Electric Palace in Bridport for one night only. Neil will be talking about all aspects of his very colourful life, from being on film sets with the likes of Laurence Olivier and Mel Gibson, to starring in Boon with Michael Elphick and of course his time with Martin Clunes, Caroline Quintin and Leslie Ash in Men Behaving Badly. Recently we have seen Neil on our screens in 'Skins' and 'Waterloo Road'. The evening will be informal, sometimes funny, sometimes moving, but always interesting! Neil will also be taking questions from the audience, so make sure you book early for what promises to be a very popular night out!

Neil Morrissey's show, 'Celebrity Stripped' takes place at Bridport's Electric Palace on Sunday, May 1st, with doors opening at 7pm. Tickets cost £15.50 and are available from Bridport TIC (telephone 01308 424901), or online - visit www.electricpalace.org.uk for more details.

THOSE 'rockin' rodents' The Hamsters come to Lyme Regis one last time on Friday, April 22nd, playing their final show in the town as part of their 25th year and Farewell Tour.

The show will be part of the 'Legends Return...' series and sees the band, who've played over 4,000 concerts in their two and a half decades, play at the Woodmead Halls.

Although they usually play their own brand of rootsy rock, blues and Americana, they'll be performing two sets of Jimi Hendrix and ZZ Top material, for which they are widely regarded as the UK's leading interpreters, at the Lyme Regis show.

Tickets £14 on the door, or £12 in advance from Lyme Regis Tourist Information Centre (01297 442138); Serendip Books, Broad Street; or by PayPal - visit www.lymeregis.tv/legends.html.

Aston Martin launches in India

Aston Martin has officially opened the doors to its first dealership in India today, bringing the British marque's luxury sports cars to the city of Mumbai.

This important move in the luxury manufacturer's expansion plans further strengthens the company's representation in this growing region, bringing the Aston Martin brand to India for the first time.

Aston Martin will commence its presence in India with a new dedicated facility in Mumbai in partnership with Performance Cars (a division of Infinity Cars Pvt. Ltd.), who has enjoyed a strong reputation in the Indian luxury car market for several years.

Aston Martin's Chief Commercial Officer, Michael van der Sande said, "India represents a new opportunity for us and as part of our programme of growing the reach of the global Aston Martin dealership network; this expansion brings our brand to a different audience in a new market."

"Our decision to bring the Aston Martin brand to India is driven by a strong level of interest and enthusiasm from potential customers in an emerging luxury market. We have taken our time to find the right advocates for Aston Martin and I am confident that we have selected strong partners with whom we look forward to starting a successful relationship."

Performance Cars, Managing Director, Mr. Lalit Choudary added, "Partnering Aston Martin offers us a unique opportunity to bring one of the world's iconic brands to one of the most discerning and fast growing markets. We are confident about the brand's success in India given the range of models, the comfortable ride quality the cars offer on our roads and the exclusivity they accord."

The Aston Martin dealership in Mumbai is located at Kemp's Corner at the junction of the ultra premium Peddar and Altamount Roads and will offer customers a premium boutique environment wherein they can specify the cars to their exacting needs. The after-sales facility in nearby Worli is a first of its kind; air conditioned workshop in the high luxury segment. The showroom and after-sales facilities have been specially designed to follow the international design elements that have timelessly identified the elegance of the Aston Martin brand worldwide.

Aston Martin customers and enthusiasts will be able to view and test-drive selected models from the entire range of V8 Vantage Coupe and Roadster, V12 Vantage, DB9 Coupe and Volante, DBS Coupe and Volante and the four-door sports car; Rapide. These models will also be joined by the recently launched V8 Vantage S and the new Virage.

The opening of the Aston Martin Mumbai showroom strengthens the company's global dealership network to a total of 134 dealers in 42 countries. As part of the company's ongoing expansion plans Aston Martin has recently entered into Brazil, Chile, Croatia, Czech Republic, Greece, Taiwan and Turkey whilst seeking continued growth in new markets as well as emerging markets including China and the Middle East.

Daring, radical and assertive - Citroen reveals DS5 in Shanghai

Citroën has revealed the eagerly anticipated third model in its innovative and distinctive DS line: DS5. Designed to express the full extent of Citroën's 'Créative Technologie', DS5 combines ground-breaking style, rewarding driving dynamics and exceptional refinement with innovative engineering solutions.

DS5 is the first Citroën model to feature HYbrid4 diesel hybrid technology, providing enhanced performance and class leading environmental credentials. The advanced HYbrid4 system delivers 200bhp; four-wheel drive capability; emission-free electric power for the city; and an acceleration boost function for the open road - with total CO2 emissions of just 99g/km.

The DS line has already redefined expectations in the supermini segment with DS3, and combines the style of a coupé and the flexibility of a five-door hatchback with DS4. Progressing to the executive segment, DS5 targets customers looking for a truly bold and assertive car with a resolutely modern approach to vehicle design.

Based on the futuristic and magical C-SportLounge concept, DS5 brings true technological innovation to its class.

The dynamic exterior reflects a modern expression of status and promises enhanced driving pleasure. Flowing lines, a sleek profile and muscular wheel arches - which wrap themselves around the large (16" to 19") alloy wheels - give DS5 an undoubted air of refined confidence.

The assertive front end instantly identifies DS5 as a member of the DS family. There is an oversized air intake, a large chrome-finished grille housing the chevrons and a new LED light signature. A distinguishing feature, DS5 boasts chrome-finished 'sabre' inserts stretching from the top of each headlamp to the windscreen.

The rear design takes DS5's on-road presence to yet another level. The car stands firmly on wide tracks, emphasised by two tail pipes built into the rear bumper and highlighted by a rear signature featuring six light guides.

Citroën DS5 is equally charismatic inside, with a remarkable cabin fully consistent with the exterior styling. The driver-focused cockpit features a coupé-like driving position with a near-vertical steering wheel and a wide central console. DS5 instantly fires the imagination. An array of buttons, switches, scroll wheels and toggles are grouped on two central consoles, one low down and one above the driver's head, 'pilot-style'. A simple push on the START button brings the interior to life. The colour Head-Up Display projects essential information into the driver's line of sight and the ambient lighting bathes the cockpit in a heady mix of red and white.

Most importantly, DS5 benefits from Citroën's expertise in quality and refinement. Each detail has been carefully considered, with premium materials such as fine-grain Club leather and exclusive designs like the 'watchstrap' seat upholstery - a signature touch of the DS line that is unique to the market.

Reconciling fun at the wheel with comfort and practicality, DS5 opens up new horizons with pioneering architecture, including:

- A sleek, compact body (4.52m long, 1.85m wide) and a driving position worthy of a Gran Turismo coupé.

- A roomy boot (up to 465 litres VDA) reminiscent of a Sportwagon.

- Five real seats, four doors and all the access and modularity of a hatchback.

For its motor show debut in Shanghai, DS5 appears in a one-off livery as the Citroën DS5 White Pearl. The cabin features ebony-coloured full-grain leather, contrasting subtly with silver-flecked over stitching. Interior detailing includes decorative inserts in Markassa ebony and a highly reflective fascia, created by applying several layers of lacquer. DS5 White Pearl also sports specially designed 20-inch alloy wheels.

Fuel price misery - with no end in sight says RHA

The price of diesel has risen to a new record high again this week, warns the Road Haulage Association.

"Relentless price rises are driving up the costs of everything we buy because it is impossible for hauliers to absorb the cost increases, much as they are under pressure from customers to do so," says RHA director of policy Jack Semple. "Short-sighted customers who refuse increases in the current climate are likely simply to drive their hauliers out of business."

The RHA Weekly Fuel Price Survey shows a national average price of 115.43 pence a litre (before VAT), up 0.50 pence from last week. Of the 15 weeks so far this year, the diesel price has risen every week but two. The price at the start of the year was 105.97 pence.

"Haulage is a competitive industry and fuel represents at least 35% of the cost of running a large lorry - often well over 40%," Semple said. "Rising fuel prices not only have to be recovered through high haulage rates. The increases also hit cash flow, as diesel costs must be paid up-front but customers often take 60 to 90 days to pay invoices."

"It seems that worse may be to come, with OPEC predicting increasing demand for oil for most of the rest of 2011," Semple added. "On top of that, it is clear from talk at the Commercial Vehicle Show at the NEC, Birmingham this week that other costs, such as vehicles and tyres, are also rising sharply."

"There is an urban myth going around that the Budget in March somehow let hauliers off the hook. Transport companies appreciate George Osborne's one penny cut in fuel duty and the suspension of the 3.02 pence inflation increase for nine months - but the reality is that he simply avoided, for the moment, adding to mounting pain," Semple said.

DORSET INTERMEDIATE FINAL
Beaminster 0 Lyme Regis 1

Thursday, April 14th (at Bridport)
A CROWD in excess of 350 witnessed Lyme Regis lift the Dorset Intermediate Cup for the seventh time at Bridport's St Mary's Ground on Thursday evening.

Most neutral spectators would have been hard pushed to pick a clear favourite before kick-off as there is very little to pick between the sides.

And so it proved. The first 20 minutes were devoid of any clear-cut chances; Lyme's Julien Simier shot over following a short corner routine whilst Ben Ward fired in an angled cross-come-shot that Ashley Caddy held comfortably.

But, what proved to be, the winning goal was just around the corner. With Beaminster holding sway in the advantage stakes, Seasiders' striker Jason Hawker chased down a long ball and collided with on-rushing Beaminster keeper Adam Herring just inside the penalty area. As the ball squirmed out of the melee the Beaminster defence paid the ultimate price for hesitating as Hawker, lying on the floor, hooked the ball into the empty net from 15 yards out.

Forty-three-year-old Hawker has without doubt scored better goals than this but never one with greater significance.

The game continued in a stuttering fashion with neither team able to break down the other on the bobbly surface. Then came the other significant moment of the evening.

In the 41st minute Lyme defender Mark Batey, having already been booked for hauling back Rainbows' skipper Murray Legg five minutes previously, lost a long ball in the floodlights and, with Sam Crocker waiting to pounce behind him, instinctively threw up an arm.

Referee Martin Underhill was left little option than to produce a second yellow card and Batey trooped off leaving Lyme to face the best part of an hour with just 10 men.

Beaminster looked to pounce immediately, James Ridd, who, despite carrying a knock into the game, put in fine shift at left back tried his luck with a couple of long range efforts but Caddy saved well. Predictably Seasiders' manager Robin Townsend sacrificed Hawker at the interval to introduce Dave Matthews as a replacement for Batey in the back line.

The second-half saw Lyme take the stance of 'what we have we hold' with Julien Simier left to cover acres of ground on his own up front.

The move almost paid immediate dividends when the French striker went close to doubling the lead with a breakaway one-on-one chance but Herring saved well.

On the hour Beaminster striker Dean Newman, who had a formidable marker in Dom Rowe, weaved into the box riding a couple of desperate tackles when others may have gone to ground.

Ten minutes later Legg burst up the right wing before crossing low to the back post where a brave last-ditch tackle from Joe Bond denied Crocker.

Legg then had Beaminster's best chance of the game when he surged through the heart of the Lyme defence but was confronted by a brave block from Caddy on the edge of the box.

With Rainbows' now leaving gaps at the back Simier had two late chances.

Firstly, the tireless Mark Bailey still had enough in his legs to produce the best piece of skill on the night; a drag back and turn that resulted in Bond finding Simier who poked a low shot just past the upright.

Then with what was just about the last kick of the game Simier was again denied by Herring after a towering header by substitute Luke Clifton.

◆Teams: Lyme Regis - Ash Caddy, M.Batey, Laing, Rowe, Whittington (Clifton 64), Ad Caddy, Bailey, Thomson (Brimicombe 81), Bond, Hawker (Matthews 45), Simier.

Beaminster - Herring, Ridd (Taylor 61), Runyard, McClements, David, Crocker (Picketts 71), Hounsell (Baker), Ward, Penn, Legg, Newman.

SATURDAY, APRIL 16th
PREMIER

Barrington 1 South Petherton 9

SOUTH Petherton took another step towards the Premier Division title when they put nine past Barrington for the second time this season.

The match was a personal triumph for Jon Hayter who scored his fourth hat-trick to take his season's tally up to 18. Rich Hebditch (2), Jason Behan, Dean Ritchie, Paul Holt and Lee Richards also netted for the champions-elect to complete the 9-1 score line.

Beaminster 4 Perry Street 1

BEAMINSTER moved back up to second place on goal difference after a stuttering performance that smacked of a hangover from Thursday evening's draining Dorset Intermediate Cup Final defeat.

Left-back James Ridd gave the hosts an early lead but this was wiped out by Stuart Packer and the teams trooped off level at 1-1 with Beaminster boss Sean Annetts far from happy: "It was the first time this season that I had had to give the team a dressing down - we just weren't at the races."

Annetts' words appeared to have an effect as the Rainbows' second 45 was much-improved: "They gave a fantastic response" said Annetts.

Good work between Sam Crocker and Ridd set-up Murray Legg to restore the lead two minutes after the restart. Number three came courtesy of a cheeky flick by Ben Ward before Legg rounded things off midway through the half with his 17th of the season.

Lyme Regis 2 Merriott Rovers 1

AN astonishing last two minutes kept Lyme Regis' slim hopes of retaining the Premier Division title alive, for a little longer at least.

With every game now a 'must-win' affair Lyme, with a line-up shorn of five of the hero's from Thursday evening's final, were guilty of wasting a host of decent first-half chances. The Seasiders were forced to reshuffle further when defender Dom Rowe limped off with a knee injury just 17 minutes in but replacement Tim Edwards had a fine game.

Merriott's keeper Adam Berry did pull off a superb save on the stroke of half-time to tip over a Mark Bailey 25-yard free-kick.

Rovers went close to breaking the deadlock in the 70th minute when Jason Crabb's header clipped the crossbar. Soon after Edwards was forced to hack a Craig Lodge effort off the line as anxiety crept into the Lyme game.

Then, with thoughts amongst the Davey Fort crowd returning to February's match with Perry Street when it took a 92nd minute penalty to finally overcome stubborn opposition, the unthinkable happened and Haydn Smith rolled Rovers into the lead after an ill-timed rush off his line by Ashley Caddy.

With his side's title hopes hanging by a thread Lyme manager Robin Townsend, who, due to the shortage of personnel was forced to have a 20 minute run-out himself, must have feared the worst.

A minute later Steve Batey thudded an angled drive against the post, and from the resulting corner brother Mark was denied by another remarkable reflex save by Berry.

Then in the 88th minute the Seasiders earned a corner. Up came 'keeper Caddy, and, after a melee in the area, the ball ricocheted into the net off the gloveman's chest!

But with just seconds remaining and Lyme still needing a goal skipper Adam Caddy crowned a magnificent personal performance with a delightful lob over Berry to earn the victory.

DIVISION ONE

Netherbury 3 Chardmouth 3

AFTER bad-tempered local-derby Netherbury may just have earned the point that will consign West-Dorset rivals Chardmouth to life in Division Two.

Influential Ambers defender was forced off after just three minutes after a tackle that his manager Andy Loudon described as 'Disgraceful'.

Dan Rumsby gave Chardmouth the lead but Phil Hussey equalised before the interval. Rumsby struck again and Phill Morris added a third to raise the Robins' hopes.

But a handball incident allowed John Kingston to reduce the deficit from the penalty spot and Hussey added his second to all-but relegate the visitors.

Lyme Regis Res 2 Forton Rangers 3

LYME Regis Reserves shipped two late goals to bring an end to their superb late season run-in.

After a goalless first-half Forton took the lead soon after the restart but midfielder Danny Thirlwell curled in a long-range free-kick that deceived the Rangers' keeper and crept in under the crossbar.

Then Ryan Fifer capped a fine performance by nodding the ball past the hapless visiting gloveman and tapping into the empty net.

But Forton weren't finished and two late goals ended the Seasiders' six-game unbeaten run.

GOAL: Adrian Stawbridge scored for Uplyme in the 5-3 win against his old team Hawkchurch United.

'KEEPER TURNED SCORER': Lyme Regis gloveman Ashley Caddy scored the Seasiders' equaliser.

DOUBLE: Dan Rumsby scored twice for Charmouth but the Robins appear to be heading out of Division One.

DIVISION TWO

Hawkchurch 3 Uplyme 5

A 5-3 win at East Devon neighbours Hawkchurch United means Uplyme could yet still earn a creditable fifth place finish in Division Two.

Adrian Strawbridge opened the scoring for Uplyme against his old team. Adam Neale headed home number two after a flick-on by Stuart King. King smashed home a third and the Swallows were away and clear at the break at 3-0.

Glenn Harding pulled one back for the Hawks but teenager Jon Davies, with his second goal in successive games, lobbed Hawks' keeper Ashley Raisen for the pick of the goals and the points were safe.

Hawkchurch goals from Harding and Gavin Herrod either side of a Gavin Fowler penalty proved to be no more than consolations.

Beaminster Res 6 Hinton 2

WITH title rivals Shepton Beauchamp in Daisy Hutchings cup action Beaminster Reserves extended their lead at the top to four points with a comfortable 6-2 win over Hinton.

Top scorers Josh Hunter, Ross Picketts and Dan Pyett all added to their season's goal tally. Hunter moved up to 21 with a hat-trick, ex-Hendon striker Ross Pickett bagged two and now has 19 whilst Pyett's goal took his up to 17.

DIVISION THREE

Lyme Bantams 1 Combe A 3

AFTER a goalless first 45 a Rory Holmes strike gave Lyme hope of a valuable victory.

But The Saints went marching home with the win after goals from Ryan Hobby (2) and Gary Biss who now has 483 to his name.

WEYMOUTH 2 DORCHESTER 6
Dorset Senior Cup Final - Att: 414

DORCHESTER Town won a one-sided Dorset Senior Cup final at the Bob Lucas Stadium that saw eight first choice Weymouth players ruled ineligible by farcical county cup rules.

With top scorer Warren Byerley (blisters) and midfielder Rob Wooleaston (hamstring) both missing through injury the Terras were only able to field three of their regular squad.

On the other hand Dorchester included seven of the side that started against Lewes three days earlier, and the game was over just after the half-hour mark as they eased into a five goal lead.

Chris Flood helped himself to a hat trick beginning in the seventh minute when he pounced after Ollie Tribe failed to control James Coutts' centre to curl his shot beyond recalled keeper Tom Manley.

Weymouth continued to be under the cosh, and Manley denied Flood a second before Jamie Manley headed over. Mike Rousell volleyed over just before the quarter hour for Weymouth, before the Magpies struck again when Coutts turned provider once more; this time for Reece Connolly who produced a precision finish.

Connolly was giving teenage defender Joe Charles a testing time, and he lured him into a rash challenge inside the box on 20 minutes and Steve Devlin scored from the spot.

Coutts then scored the fourth with a volley from Devlin's cross before a Ben Gerring error allowed Flood to grab his second.

Five up after 33 minutes the tie was over, but Ryan McKechnie tucked home the rebound after Rousell's effort had come back off the post.

The second-half was much lower key with the result virtually known, and although both sides went close, it was not until the 75th minute that Rousell reduced the gap after Magpies keeper Regan Coward and Frampton collided to provide him with an unguarded goal.

With both sides playing out time, Flood completed the scoring and his hat-trick when he headed home sub Adam Taylor's cross with a minute left.

The win saw Dorchester lift the cup for the eleventh time in what was probably one of their easiest victories.

Magpies find Whites tough nut to crack

DORCHESTER TOWN 0 DOVER ATHLETIC 0
Blue Square South - Att: 475

ALTHOUGH both sides needed three points for different reasons, both will be thankful of a point from a game neither could afford to lose.

Dorchester were looking to move clear of the chasing pack below, whilst Dover were hoping that victory would catapult them into a play-off spot, but in an entertaining game neither could find a goal with both keepers in fine form.

Reece Connolly, playing up front with Chris Flood brought the first save out of White's keeper Ross Flitney after 18 minutes with a point blank save from his header from Flood's cross, before Regan Coward produced a great save from Harry Baker who had been put in by Donovan Simmonds' nod down from Tom Wynter's long ball.

Flitney then produced a flying save to keep out Connolly's header before repeating the feat to turn away Gary Bowles' 25-yard free kick that was heading for the top corner.

Dover once again responded in this game of cut and thrust, and Coward once more produced a good save to deny Baker after he broke through. Fortunately for the Magpies Nathan Ashton blazed the rebound over.

Adam Birchall who scored the two goals that downed the Magpie in the reverse fixture just four weeks ago, was put in by Ed Harris' ball over the top, but he fired wide from an acute angle. Simmonds then found Ashton free, but his curling shot produced another fine save from Coward.

Skipper Mark Jermyn almost celebrated his 30th birthday in style just after the break, but Connor Essam blocked his goalbound effort as Dorchester held the ascendancy for a spell. However as at Dover, it is dangerous to ignore Birchall. However with his first real good chance on goal, he found Coward too good for him this time.

Dorchester had a let off with 20 minutes to go when Birchall cut the ball back from the byeline. Simmonds curling effort beat Coward but struck the top of the crossbar on its way over.

Birchall had another chance soon over but this time the Magpies keeper smothered the ball at his feet.

The introduction of Ryan Moss injected new life into the home attack, and he rounded Essam but Flitney saved his effort, before Wynter stopped him with a fine tackle.

In the dying minutes Moss then fired over from a good position after Connolly had headed down Devlin's cross.

Both sides would have been pleased to have avoided defeat, but it hasn't helped either club particularly in their efforts at opposite ends of the table.

WEYMOUTH 2 HEDNESFORD TOWN 4
Zamaretto Premier - Att: 489

WEYMOUTH appeared to have won a well earned point at home to high flying Hednesford on Saturday before keeper James Nortei threw it away in a moment of madness.

The Terras after perhaps finding themselves unluckily two goals down, had fought back with strikes from Warren Byerley and Jamie Beasley and were within two minutes of keeping themselves above the relegation zone when Nortei inexplicably chose to kick the ball off the ground rather than from his hands. His kick hit Kyle Patterson and rebounded to Nick Wellecombe who had the easy task of rolling it into an empty net.

To rub salt into the wound Danny Quinn then added a fourth in injury time to complete the agony.

With Didcot getting an added time equaliser at home to fellow strugglers Halesowen Town, it means the Oxfordshire club leapfrog the Terras on goal difference who drop into the bottom three.

Nortei's error was not the only disappointment of the match; Warren Byerley so deadily this season from open play and from the spot missed his first penalty of the campaign which would have given the Terras a sixth minute lead.

Lee Smith was upended in the box by Louis Keenan to give the Terras a great chance of taking control of the game, but for once the normally deadly Byerley failed, as the Pitmen's keeper Dan Crane pulled off an excellent save. Unfortunately in the scramble for the rebound the Terras striker kicked Crane in the face as he dived at his feet and received a yellow card for his act of frustration.

Soon after Smith's effort cleared the bar as the game settled down. Hednesford began to get into the game without really testing the home defence until six minutes from the break when Nick Jacobs failed to deal with a long hopeful ball, and Patterson was on it like a flash before beating Lewis Clarke and driving past Nortei.

Jacobs almost made amends instantly but his header from a corner turned over by Crane, and almost immediately Chris Clements doubled the advantage when he picked up the rebound from Wellecombe's shot to volley the ball into the corner.

With the interval looming Byerley made amends for his spot kick by giving the Terras hope during the break with an angled drive from Rob Wooleaston's pass.

Weymouth began the second half brightly, and Jamie Mudge had a shot cleared off the line six minutes after the resumption, although the Pitmen claimed a penalty after Nortei had appeared to bring down Patterson on the hour, but referee Wade ignored their pleas Patterson then struck the cross bar with a volley before Weymouth picked up their game again.

Ben Gerring was denied by an excellent point-blank save from Crane before Beasley levelled the game with a spectacular shot from an acute angle that gave the visiting keeper no chance.

With all to play for, both sides went for victory with plenty of end-to-end football.

Wellecombe should have scored after rounding Nortei but allowed the Ghanaian to grab the ball at the second opportunity, before Clarke struck the post at the other end before Nortei did well to thwart Ross Davidson.

It looked like Weymouth had salvaged a point from the game before Nortei's clanger.

The defeat is a crushing blow to Weymouth's chances of survival and must have left manager Martyn Rogers exasperated.

Bees survive 'head' ache

PORTISHEAD TOWN 2 BRIDPORT 3
Toolstation Division One - Att: 45

BRIDPORT kept their promotions hopes alive after coming back from two goals down at lowly Portishead Town last Tuesday.

The Possets struck either side of halftime to leave the Bees looking like they had blown their chances of maintaining their advantage over the chasing pack. But they hit back with a goal from one of the unlikeliest sources; Ryan Hayter, before Chris Clarke and Adam Symes ensured victory.

The win put Bridport seven points clear of Cadbury Heath on the same number of games, and nine points ahead of Oldland Abbotonians, albeit they have two matches in hand.

Simon Kelly gave the hosts the lead on the half hour before doubling the advantage just before the hour, and it looked like Bridport might be heading for an unexpected defeat. Manager Trevor Senior changed his formation to 3-4-3 to try and get back in the game, and it worked instantly.

You can count on one hand the number of goals Hayter has scored for the Bees during his seven seasons at the club, but none was probably as welcome as his latest on the hour that brought his side back in the game.

His stunning strike from the edge of the box gave the visitors renewed energy and they equalised ten minutes later when Clarke thumped home a header from Adam Symes' cross.

Portishead were rocked by the Bridport fight back and were felled by the winner seven minutes from time when sub Ashley Clarke provided the perfect cross for Symes to direct his shot into the top corner.

Senior said after the match: "I have nothing but admiration for the lads for the way they fought back. Portishead is always a difficult place to go and they always up their game, and this shows the character of the team."

Bees go nap as they apply pressure

BRIDPORT 5 SHREWTON UNITED 1
Toolstation Division One - Att: 116

BRIDPORT cruised into a four goal interval lead to maintain their promotion challenge, and put more pressure on the chasing pack. With just three games to go it looks like the chase for second place will go right to the wire, with the Bees in the driving seat.

Manager Trevor Senior started with the same side that finished at Portishead Town on Tuesday, meaning that Darren Watts started with San Charles on the subs bench.

Bridport ensured they would not find themselves chasing the game as they did on Tuesday by scoring early; Watts curling a shot around Shrews keeper Chris Brewer from the corner of the box after Dan Wise had laid the ball into his path on nine minutes.

Chris Clarke doubled the advantage on 20 minutes when he took Wise's pass around the keeper before slotting the ball home from an acute angle.

The Bees continued to dominate and went three up just after the half hour when Brewer brought down Wise on the corner of the box after the midfielder had pushed the ball beyond him. Brewer was booked and Wise crashed home the penalty.

Bridport closed the game out on the stroke of halftime when man of the match Dan Peart and Matt Condliffe, who also had an excellent game, played a 'give and go' allowing the wing back to round two defenders before beating Brewer.

Unfortunately Clarke suffered an eye injury in the celebrations which resulted in him going to hospital and being replaced by Charles at the break.

A second penalty from Wise early in the second half after he was fouled by Jack Vallis on the edge of the box completed Bridport's scoring, and despite continued pressure on the Shrew's overworked defence they failed to add to their total, although Charles was unlucky when his header clipped the top of the crossbar.

Shrewton pulled one back in the last minute when Bridport's defence stopped waiting for a handball decision from a corner and Craig Lewis grabbed a consolation.

Clarke double fires Bees to fine win

HOLT UNITED 1 BRIDPORT RESERVES 3

BEN Clarke was the toast of the dressing room following his brace that saw Bridport Reserves come away with a fine victory at Holt United last Saturday.

Holt are a notoriously difficult team to beat, but a superb all round team performance saw the Bees record their fourth victory in the last five games to maintain ninth position in the Magna Dorset Premier League.

Bridport took the lead midway through the first-half with a good team move that ended with Robin Jones feeding Clarke just inside the area for the striker to drive home.

They continued to dominate play and after a couple of half chances went begging, doubled their advantage on the half hour when Clarke became provider for Jones to round the keeper and slot home.

The home side finally got a toe-hold in the game and put the visiting defence under pressure from a couple of free kicks but they came to nothing.

After the break Bridport continued to dominate without scoring, and with 20 minutes to go Holt pulled one back with a header from Tom Willis following a corner. However the Bees responded almost immediately when Clarke scored the goal of the game. Cutting in from the left the big striker beat two defenders before curling his shot beyond the keeper.

Joint manager Steve Crabb said: "It's never easy going to Holt, but it was an excellent team performance and we thoroughly deserved the victory."

"I was a little worried when they pulled a goal back, but we scored immediately to restore our advantage. It seemed to knock the stuffing out of them and it was fairly plain sailing from then on."

"We have a couple of tricky games left such as Chickerell on Tuesday, but if we can win a couple more then we should finish mid-table, ninth or 10th which was our aim and would mean a good season for us."

The blip in their last five game run was at the Bob Lucas Stadium last Wednesday when Weymouth Reserves beat the Bees 4-0.

"We played well for the first 25 minutes but then they hit us with two quick goals and after having a couple of good chances early in the second half, they scored two more in quick succession which put us out of the game."

Chris Herbst was star man for the Bees.

◆ After cruising past Portesham United in a replayed match from earlier in the season, Bridport Thirds went nap again with the 5-0 crushing of fancied Milborne Sports midweek.

Unfortunately they were brought back to ground on Saturday when champions Mere Town completed their fixtures with a 4-1 victory over the Bees at St Mary's Playing Field. Bridport took the lead but Mere took control after an injury to Sam Beavis.

Determined Ethiopia raises stable morale

THIS season has been a difficult one for local trainer Bob Buckler's stable so it was great to see Ethiopia add to the success of River Indus and Ready Or Not a week earlier by fighting back to snatch victory by a short head at Chepstow.

Andrew Glassonbury brought the eight-year-old to challenge the 6/4 fav Midnight Money as they turned into the home straight in the Sun Trade Windows Handicap Chase over 3¼ miles and he soon pulled out a three length advantage.

However the Tim Vaughan trained horse seemed to find some extra speed and regained the lead between the second and last fences and it looked all over, but Glassonbury got to work on his horse and snatched victory on the line in a storming finish to register the yards third win in a week from five runs.

Ethiopia, wearing blinkers for the first time, also got revenge on Zimbabwe who has finished just in front of him in their two previous encounters this season. This time the Nigel Hawke trained horse blew up after racing away at the start and was finally pulled up.

Head Lad Giles Scott said: "What a brilliant run! This time he was settled in behind and let Zimbabwe go, and he soon got into a good rhythm. He was a bit sloppy at the 14th, his only error, but otherwise jumped very soundly."

"It looked like he had the race galvanised as he came round the final bend and put in huge jumps at the first two fences in the straight. However I think he started to idle in front, but when he went behind he rallied and fought back brilliantly under a strong and determined ride from Andrew (Glassonbury)."

There was disappointment however in France where The Sawyer put in a good performance before finally refusing three fences from home in the Prix Murat over 2 miles 5 furlongs. With prize money of €240,000 it was a keenly contested race but eventually the variety of the fences and the tight course put paid to his chances.

Stable jockey Nathan Sweeney said: "It was a great experience, but unfortunately the chase course is quite tight, a bit like Taunton but going the other way, and that didn't suit The Sawyer who is a galloping horse."

Also there was such a variety in the types and size of the fences; much more difficult that the ones on the cross country course at Cheltenham. There were fences on bends and they varied from small hurdles to one fence which was absolutely huge!

"He jumped the big one the first time around okay, but on the second circuit it is split and the other part was even bigger, and I think he decided he had had enough and dropped me off!"

"It was a pity really because he is a good jumper and gallops, but I think you need a smaller horse that is a bit more nimble to handle the tight bends. It's a shame because the hurdle course is a lovely galloping track and would have suited him well."

"But it was a great experience; an amazing place; and I would like to go back again given the opportunity. You'll never know until you've tried it, and I think we would be much more prepared next time."

Dorchester Boxing

Gosney lift for Dorchester Boxing Club

JAMIE Gosney ensured that the Dorchester club's boxers and fans didn't go home empty handed from the recent Blandford Tournament.

There was a full house for this event, and the crowd weren't disappointed in the talent on show which included three Dorchester boxers.

Despite narrow defeats for Liam Gould and Rodney Dalley, Gosney convincingly out-pointed Jack Blanc from Bournemouth.

The in-form county town boxer assumed an unorthodox flowing quality both in defence and attack, proving he is not easy to beat, with his sharp left repeatedly penetrating and his punching and covering up first class.

Blanc produced a beautifully executed left to the jaw in the second, but Gosney countered with a five-punch combination to the body and head.

Blanc forced the third with some impressive shots, but Gosney finished the round and the bout with a burst of blows that ensured victory.

Gould had a close bout against Tom Johnston of Portsmouth. Wary of the power of Gould's ferocious left hand jab used his speed and ring craft to take the first round with some good defence.

The Dorchester boxer did all the work, repeatedly penetrating Johnston's stronghold with counter punching and covering up, but his opponents' speed and footwork once again stood him in good stead and impressed the judges who gave him the verdict.

Dalley was involved in a terrific bout with Bournemouth's Matt Sachi. Dalley's positive attacking ploy saw him constantly picked off, but his own brand of skilfully channelled aggressive energy using his classic straight left and powerful right to his advantage gave Sachi problems, but he held on for a narrow points decision.

Coach Ben Geyser said: "Although the better boxer on the night, Rodney is not flawless and looked like he was not defending himself. He relies heavily on his sheer bravery and ability to block out pain."

"He needs to smooth off the rough edges and let's his style and natural talents shine through." This temporary setback will not affect him, but he must cover up and defend himself at all times."

Double relegation for Bridport RFC teams

THE final round of league fixtures took place on Saturday last, with most promotion and relegation issues already solved writes Keith Jenkin.

I decided to take in Bridport's home game against Trowbridge, to see if the Brewery Field side could engineer an eleventh hour escape from the drop to the Dorset & Wilts League Division One (South).

BRIDPORT 10pts, TROWBRIDGE 28pts

THIS, the final game of Bridport's league campaign, took place on the club's second pitch and the home side, having won the toss, chose to take advantage of the slight slope in the first period.

Their opponents however, started as if they meant it. Trowbridge kicked-off, regained possession and thrust into home territory. Bridport conceded a penalty in defence and the ball was kicked to the corner. Two more penalties were conceded and the same tactic used and finally Trowbridge found the narrow side unmanned at a maul close in, and their number eight got over unopposed.

The home side were showing something in attack, and took a ball against the head at a set scrum in the Trowbridge twenty two. They were giving away too many penalties however and their opponents were able to relieve the pressure and, furthermore, to assay several more catch and drives close in.

Bridport were going backward in the set scrums and this frailty certainly did not help their cause. They were conceding penalties too and Trowbridge converted one award on the 25 minute mark to lead 8-0. Another penalty goal followed a few minutes later and, at 11-0 ahead, the visitors were in control, the more so because of their edge in the tight.

Having said, that, Bridport, were back in the game before the interval, albeit against the run of play. They turned over possession in broken field on halfway and Everitt found space on the narrow side and had the pace to elude the cover and touch down.

Bridport's optimism proved to be short lived however, for a third penalty goal before the break took Trowbridge a score clear at 14-5.

I felt that Trowbridge were strong favourites at this stage. They led by nine points, were dominant in the set scrums and would have the slope in their favour in the second-half. They got the score that, I felt, made the result safe with some 25 minutes left. Having ground their way into the home twenty two via their pack, they sent the ball wide and one of their runners got over some ten yards in from touch.

The try remained unconverted and, just as I had consigned Bridport to a defeat, they scored their second try of the game; a good individual one by Blakesley who, having received the ball on the Trowbridge twenty two, picked up his knees and galloped.

He took the outside curve, fended off one or two defenders and crashed over. The conversion went wide, but at 10-19, Bridport did still have a chance. It was not to be. Trowbridge kicked their fourth penalty goal of the afternoon almost immediately, albeit off an upright.

They kicked two more before the end as Bridport continued to infringe, the second with the last kick of the game, leaving Bridport with the knowledge that they will be playing their rugby in the Dorset & Wilts League Division One (South) next season.

Try as they might, Bridport could not break the shackles imposed by the Trowbridge pack. While the visitors' back division was not a cohesive unit, their forwards held sway for most of the game, forcing the home side into error, and setting up penalty chances for their place kicker who did the rest.

In fact it was a pretty scruffy weekend for the Bridport club all round. Their second side, who had already been relegated, was forced to concede its final game at Ellingham & Ringwood seconds.

DORCHESTER 19pts, NORTH DORSET 27pts

DORCHESTER were, yet again, guilty of starting slowly, a fact that they were left rueing when the whistle for no side sounded. A very handy North Dorset side were not slow to take advantage and scored two tries in the first few minutes, one of which they converted, to lead 12-0.

The home side did rouse themselves and number eight, Prior, touched down after a well executed peel at a lineout close to the visitors' line. They got a second try soon after when centre Bament was the recipient of a loose pass amongst the North Dorset backs. He had the pace (and puff) to run in from well inside his own territory, and was moreover, able to control his breathing well enough to land the conversion from out wide.

His effort brought his side level, only for the visitors to retake the lead when a badly flung pass in their own back line caused confusion amongst the home side as well. One of their centres took full advantage and got over under the posts, thus making the conversion a formality. His effort took the scoreline to 12-19 at the halfway stage and left the final outcome very much in doubt.

Truth to tell, the second half proved to be something of a 'mish mash', with both sides being less than clinical in their handling. Frustrations grew and yellow was very much in evidence, with Dorchester being reduced to thirteen men at one stage.

North Dorset again took advantage, kicking a penalty and driving over the home line for an unconverted try from a lineout close in while the home side were short of bodies.

Restored to full complement, Dorchester did mount a rally but, although Pryce got over for a try that Bament converted, it was not enough. The visitors held on to register a bonus point win, and furthermore, to deprive Dorchester of a losing bonus point.

While the Dorchester third side notched a handy 36-19 win over North Dorset 4th, the club's second team had to concede its game.

WIMBORNE 2nd 29pts, WEYMOUTH 17pts

A YOUNG and pacy Wimborne side belied their lowly league position and, although they could not win the lion's share of possession, made good use of their limited ball, and were quick to take advantage of any error.

In fact they opened the scoring with an unconverted try and, in spite of the fact that Weymouth began to get on top, scored another, rather against the run of play this time.

Weymouth then got a score back through Sample, converted by Peplow, only for the home side to run a wayward kick back just before the change round, and score a converted try to lead 17-7 at the halfway stage.

A penalty goal by out half Peplow reduced the arrears early in the second period, only for Wimborne to stretch their lead with an unconverted touchdown.

Weymouth then really got back into the mix with a try by Lewendon, converted by Peplow and, at 22-17 it was still anybody's game.

Credit to the home side however! In the last five minutes of a good and exciting encounter they got over for a converted try that had, perhaps, included a forward pass in its build up. The score stood however. Weymouth could not come back and the home side held on for the win.

Congratulations are certainly due to the WEYMOUTH second side. After playing well during the last couple of months and beating other promotion hopefuls along the way they finally clinched the runners up spot in the Dorset & Wilts League Division Three (South) and will take their place in Division Two in September.

In fact they were conceded the game by Saturday's opponents and, with Oakmedians failing to take the field also, they claimed second place by a single point.

EAST DORSET 48pts, PUDDLETOWN 12pts

THIS game, against a side who have been in the promotion race for most of the season, was always going to be a tough one for Puddletown. Initially things went well as, after coping with the home-side's attacking start, they took the lead towards the end of the first quarter with an unconverted try, touched down by winger Stacey, after good work by his centre Tom Yeatman.

The try remained unconverted and the large and lumpy home eight then began to assert itself and put the visitors on the back foot. An equalising score came within five minutes and, in spite of good tackling stints by locks Gordon and Talbot, three more tries came before the break, giving East Dorset a 26-5 interval lead.

Puddletown continued to have their say however, with the front row union of Wilson, Yeatman and Richardson competing well, and with number eight, Harlan Hill, certainly catching the eye in attack.

It was he who reduced the arrears on the hour when he shrugged several tackles and got over. Musgrove, whose first conversion attempt had rebounded from an upright, added the extras.

East Dorset meantime were using their powerful bench to very good effect, and fresh legs saw them score four tries in the final quarter to run out comfortable winners by the whistle for no side, leaving Puddletown to reflect on a rather inconsistent 2010/2011 league campaign.

PREVIEW

THE 2010/2011 season, although not officially ended, will I think, gently fade away from here on.

Bridport is scheduled to meet Weymouth at both first and second team level on Saturday next, but it is a matter of conjecture as to whether or not these games will take place. Bridport's Richards Memorial Game will, of course take place on April 30th and a couple of games against touring sides may well follow.

Weymouth too may well be entertaining touring sides, and of course their second side take on Salisbury thirds in the Junior Cup Final at the end of the month.

Puddletown entertain the touring St Albans on Good Friday. Dorchester for its part, have an inter club run out on Saturday next when the over 25s take on the under 25s.

Portland triathlete wins Tri UK sponsorship

A LOCAL triathlete has won kit sponsorship from Tri UK, the world's largest triathlon store.

Sixteen-year-old Portlander Chris Perham who attends Royal Manor Arts College travelled to Yeovil to collect his team kit ahead of the new season that starts next month with a triathlon locally at the Weymouth & Portland National Sailing Academy.

A member of the Tornadoes of South Dorset swimming club and Dorset Pentathletes, Chris is new to the cycling element only having started at the end of last year.

Chris said: "I am really pleased to be part of Tri UK, and have been training hard on all the elements of the triathlon and am looking forward to my first race next month."

Tri UK have been in existence for 18 years and pride themselves on the sponsorship of full-time professionals down to enthusiastic 'Weekend Warriors'. Our photo (below) shows Chris all kitted out.

Weymouth & District Table Tennis League

Division 2: While Shipton B continue to press for promotion, Shipton C slumped to a seventh consecutive defeat and face the spectre of relegation.

Despite the absence of Jim Saunders the B team notched up a very useful 23 - 14 win at Colliton B with Bruce Beal collecting nine points, Ron Tucknott six and John Moseley five. Tucknott and Beal went on to win the doubles 3-0.

At home to St. Osmunds Sharks the following week it was much the same story with Bruce Beal again making maximum points in a 25-11 win. Skipper Ron Tucknott also won a maximum nine and John Moseley a useful four. Tucknott and Beal once again took the doubles 3-0 to round off a good night.

Gorge B now go into their last match against nearest challengers Springfield C with every chance of securing promotion.

Having to play with a weakened team against high flying Springfield C, Shipton's third string paid the full price suffering a record 2-30 defeat with only Colin Davis getting any points on the scorecard.

The return of Peter Billingham against Dorset Youth gave the side some hope but his hard earned nine points were the only reward in a 9-23 defeat and with Gorge C having played all their matches they lie in second bottom place and look likely candidates to drop to Division 3 next season.

INSIDE: County honours for Lyme Regis golfers

Spirit the key to cup glory

GUTSY, heroic, 'full of heart', were just some of the words used by spectators to describe a stunning rearguard action as 10-man Lyme Regis defeated old adversaries Beaminster 1-0 in front of a huge crowd at Bridport last Thursday.

Veteran striker Jason Hawker scored the winning goal midway through the first-half - whilst lying prone in the Beaminster penalty area having collided with goalkeeper Adam Herring!

The Seasiders were then forced, in the words of captain Adam Caddy (and Jose Mourinho!) to 'park the bus' (in front of the goal) for an hour when defender Mark Batey was sent-off after receiving two yellow cards.

From there on the whole team dug-deep to produce a magnificent defensive performance that denied a talented Beaminster side that ultimately came up short in the character stakes.

On Saturday Lyme returned to League matters with the Premier Division title still up for grabs. After a one-sided game, but The Seasiders failing to find the net visitors Merriott stunned the Davey Fort crowd with the opener 10 minutes from time.

But, with the clock ticking down, goalkeeper Ashley Caddy came up for a late corner and bundled the ball home to set up a grandstand finish which saw brother Adam lob the 'keeper to salvage the win.

With every game now a must win if Lyme are to retain the title, the team were due to entertain relegation-haunted Misterton last night and Iminster Town Reserves on Saturday.

The second match at the Fort saw the Resgies go down 3-2 to Forton Rangers with Danny Thirlwell and Ryan Fifer on target whilst the Bantams' Division Three status is left hanging by a thread after they were beaten 3-1 by Combe A.

Next weekend The Reserves welcome Thorncombe in the second game of a double header whilst the Bantams travel to title-chasing Misterton Reserves needing to win or hope that a reshuffle in the league may result in only one team being relegated to division four.

An Adrian Strawbridge goal against his old side helped Uplyme to a 5-3 Devon-derby victory at Hawkchurch United. The Swallows continue in their build-up to the Tommy Taberner Cup Final when they entertain Dowlish & Donyatt on Saturday.

Meanwhile Charmouth were relegated from Division One after they could only draw 3-3 in a stormy encounter at Netherbury.

Royal Wedding Souvenir

Commemorating the marriage of HRH Prince William and Kate Middleton

From Posh and Becks to Middleton's pub landlord... they're all invited

■ BUCKINGHAM Palace will host a lunch for 650 guests after the wedding ceremony as well as staging the black-tie evening reception and dinner for 300 guests which is likely to go on late into the night.

The royal wedding celebrations will take place in the ballroom, the largest room in the palace at 120 feet long.

Buckingham House was bought by George 111 in 1761 for his wife, Queen Charlotte, and extended into a place by George IV in 1826 at a cost of £5000,000 (almost £25 million in today's money).

The building, designed by John Nash, was completed in the reign of William IV and Queen Victoria was the first monarch to live in the palace.

■ NEARLY 2,000 guests have been invited to the wedding of the year - from David and Victoria Beckham to John Haley, landlord of the Middleton's favourite pub in Bucklebury in Berkshire.

Among those present will be 30 personnel from the Armed Forces, including the search and rescue helicopter team who serve alongside Prince William at RAF Valley in Anglesey.

Other notable guests will include St Clive Woodward, the former England rugby coach, 50 members of the British royal family, 40 from foreign royal families and 200 MPs, Peers and foreign dignitaries.

Kate's parents, Carole and Michael Middleton, have invited 100 family and friends, including "black sheep" uncle Gary Goldsmith.

■ WESTMINSTER Abbey (pictured right) has been the venue for 15 royal weddings, including Prince William's grandmother (The Queen) and great grandmother.

The Abbey became popular for royal weddings in the 20th century after Princess Patricia of Connaught's marriage to Commander Alexander Ramsay in 1919, the first royal wedding held in the Abbey in more than 500 years.

Prince William and Kate Middleton will take their vows standing on the intricately restored Cosmati Pavement, dating from 1268 and built by Italian craftsmen on the orders of Henry 111.
